

THE HARTFORD HERALD.

Subscription $1 Per Year, in Advance.

"I Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the News of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed.

38th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1912.

NO. 14

STRIKE OF OIL NEAR HARTFORD

Is a Matter of Growing General Interest.

WILL SHOOT WELL IN FEW DAYS

The Excellent Work of Prof.
Gardner, of State Geological Survey,

THE ANALYSIS SHOWS IT FINE

Interest in the oil strike in the well being drilled near Hartford has not abated and is still the main topic of conversation in and around Hartford. Several strangers interested in the project have visited Hartford within the past week and expressed themselves as satisfied that a great strike had been made. Drilling and work at the well has stopped temporarily, awaiting the arrival of pumping apparatus to take care of the oil already flowing in copious quantities. It is estimated that the well will afford about six or seven barrels of good oil per day without any further probing. However, the well will be "shot" just as soon as weather permits the transportation of the nitroglycerine from Oakland City, Ind., to Hartford. At present the rivers are too high and the roads too rough. Owing to the dangerous explosive qualities of this stuff, extra precautions must be taken. About 75 quarts of nitroglycerine will be used in the shot and it is estimated that the effect will be to put the well in condition so that it will flow at the rate of from 100 to 150 barrels per day. Much depends upon the effect of this shot.

In striking this oil and developing the well, much credit is due Prof. James H. Gardner, of the State Geological Survey, who made a report in 1911 of oil possibilities in Ohio county, before this well was drilled. He recommended the territory to the West Kentucky Oil Co. and located the district for the well. This is the first example in Kentucky of an oil well being located on a strictly scientific basis and not on the usual "wildcat" plan. Prof. Gardner's report was incorporated in the prospectus of the company, through the courtesy of the State Geologist.

This work shows the direct value of the State Geological Survey to the people of Kentucky. The State appropriates $15,000 per annum for the survey work in the Commonwealth, in order to advertise and assist in developing the natural resources of Kentucky. No money appropriated is put to better use in advancing the interests of the State and drawing money within her borders. It represents a splendid investment. Prof. Gardner predicts that the field can be extended over a considerable territory if wise judgment is used in locating all additional wells. Prof. Gardner is a candidate for Director of the State Geological Survey, the appointment to be made by Gov. McCreary between now and July 1st. His splendid qualifications eminently fit him for the place.

It is probable that the Geological Survey will have a complete report made on the Ohio county field. It is evident that there is plenty of oil in this section.

Prof. Gardner was here the latter part of last week and took away with him a gallon of the oil here for analysis. A letter from him to the Company here, received Monday, says the analysis shows up splendidly, although not yet completed. The oil compares well with the Pennsylvania oil, as shown by the following results:

Naptha (Including benzine and gasoline) .....	18 per cent
Kerosene .....	44 per cent
Lubricating oil .....	27 per cent
Residuum .....	11 per cent

100

The gravity is 32 Baume, which is very high, indicating a higher oil than the average Indiana or Illinois oils. The white oil distillates are very clear and bright.

A PROMINENT FARMER
DROPS DEAD IN FIELD

Mr. J. P. Martin, one of the oldest and most prominent farmers of Daviess county, was found dead on his farm, near Habit, Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, by his son Albert. Mr. Martin left his home shortly after 3 o'clock, telling his wife that he was going to the field where his son was engaged in burning a planter. After watching the work for some time, Mr. Martin started home and his body was discovered later by his son about one hundred yards from the planter.

Mr. Martin was born in Ohio county, but moved to Daviess county with his parents when he was four years old, and had lived in that county for the past 78 years.

Mr. Martin had been in bad health for a number of years and his death was due to heart trouble. He is survived by his wife and seven children, Albert and Lucian, of Habit; Robert and Ed Martin, of Oklahoma; Geo. Martin, of Owensboro, and Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. Henry Hector, of Masonville. He is also survived by three sisters, Miss Melvina Martin, Mrs. Vera Howard and Mrs. Della Jewell, of Utica, and one brother, Mr. Fay Martin, of Owensboro.

DEATH COMES TO CLAIM
"FIDDLING BOB" TAYLOR

Washington, March 31.—Robert Love Taylor, United States Senator from Tennessee, died here today, unable to withstand the shock of an operation for gall stones, performed last Thursday.

Early this morning the Senator began to fail to respond to stimulants. Mrs. Taylor, worn out by a day and night vigil, had gone to her apartments. At 3 o'clock this morning the Senator began to sink so rapidly that she was sent for. She was at his bedside when the end came at 9:40 o'clock.

"Fiddling Bob" Taylor, so known because he played his way into the hearts of his audiences, carrying his violin wherever he campaigned, was 61 years old. He belonged to an office-holding family. His father was a Representative in Congress and Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and an uncle was in the Confederate Senate.

Once Pension Agent at Knoxville twice Governor of Tennessee, from 1887 to 1891 and 1897 to 1899, Senator Taylor forged his way to the national House of Representatives from the same congressional district that had previously sent his father to Congress and later his brother, Alfred A. Taylor, whom he subsequently defeated for Governor.

KENTUCKY WILL HAVE SEVEN SONS IN SENATE

Washington, March 31.—Of the four new United States Senators who will be sworn in this week, two are native-born Kentuckians—Mark Smith, of Arizona, originally from Cynthiana, Ky., and A. B. Fall, of New Mexico, who was born in Frankfort. The newcomers give Kentucky seven sons in the Senate—Cullom, of Illinois; Stone, of Missouri; Bristow, of Kansas, and Bradley and Paynter, of Kentucky. With the four members sworn in, the membership of the Senate will be 95—51 Republicans and 44 Democrats. There is one vacancy in Colorado.

Important Election.
The orders calling for an election in the Third Regiment, to be held March 29, were revoked and the date changed to Saturday, April 6. This election is of vital importance and every member of Company H should not fail to be present. An receipt of a telegram from Capt. DeWeeso, San Diego, Cal., urging that the entire membership of the company be present and vote.

The election will be held at the armory at 8 p. m. After the election, will have school and gallery rifle practice.

C. B. SHOWN,
1st Lieut. Commanding Co. H.

Governor to Take Rest.
Frankfort, Ky., April 1.—Gov. McCreary will spend the month of July out of the State and Lieut. Gov. Ed J. McDermott will be acting Governor for that month and perhaps longer. So far the Lieutenant Governor has not had a chance to occupy the Governor's chair.

Kills 17 Ducks at One Shot.
Mayaville, Ky., March 30.—Marion Wilson, who lives below this city, while en route here yesterday in a motor boat, shot into a flock of wild ducks and killed seventeen of them. They were large for this season.

STATE UNION THE A. S. OF E.

Met at Central City Tuesday Last Week.

MUCH IMPORTANT BUSINESS

Was Transacted Behind Closed Doors and the Order Built Up.

A LARGE CLASS INITIATED

The Kentucky State Union of A. S. of E. met in the Opera House in Central City, March 26, and in the absence of State President Biggerstaff, caused by his death on March 23, was called to order by vice president J. H. McConnell, of Princeton. A splendid delegation of earnest farmers was present. A committee on credentials was appointed and after the delegates were seated, the convention got down to work in earnest.

A committee on resolutions was appointed as follows: J. F. Boss, Ben Watson, H. M. Pirle.

Committee on order of business was appointed as follows: W. P. Stevens, Dr. W. B. Gilliam and J. H. Hursey.

In opening his address, vice president McConnell made some very touching remarks on the death of the former president, and appointed the following committee on obituary: S. L. Stevens, of Ohio county; Judge M. F. Hays, of Butler county; A. E. Osborn, of Allen county; R. E. Ray, of Hardin county. The committee drafted suitable resolutions and same were ordered spread on minutes of the meeting and copy sent to the bereaved family, and also to the official organization.

Many encouraging reports were made and steps were taken for actual work to be pushed in many of the counties of the State at once.

All sessions of this very important meeting were held behind closed doors and much important work was done.

Mr. Ben Watson, president of the A. S. of E. Wool Department No. 2, was present and made a strong appeal for a great wool pool for 1912.

At the night session a large class of candidates were instructed in the secret work by the State organizer, J. F. Boss, and taken all together, the work alone will be far reaching in scope and means a great deal for the cause of Equity in Kentucky.

Heartly thanks were extended the Muhlenberg County Union and managers of the Opera House for free use of the hall and for courteous treatment extended by the people of Central City.

At 9 p. m. the convention adjourned to meet in Calhoun on the second Wednesday in December.

POST-OFFICE AT POINT
PLEASANT WAS ROBBED

The post-office at Point Pleasant, Ohio county, was broken into and robbed of about $8 Thursday night.

The post-office was in the store of L. L. Patterson, and a considerable amount of merchandise was also stolen. Entrance was made through a window. The funds which were stolen were postal and money-order funds. No stamps were taken. Mr. Patterson, the postmaster, has no clue to the guilty persons, but has taken the matter up with the postal authorities, and is confident that they will be caught shortly.

CHOKES TO DEATH ON RESTAURANT STEAK

Effingham, Ill., March 30.—William Connors, village marshal at Edgewood, Ill., choked to death on a piece of steak in a restaurant here today. Connors was especially fond of steak, and had ordered an extra sirloin of large size especially cooked. He was joking with a companion about the toughness of the meat, when he was seized with a choking fit and died before relief could be had. He was sixty-five years old and unmarried.

Albert B. Fall, a native of Frankfort, Ky., and Thomas B. Catron were elected to the United States Senate by the Legislature of New Mexico.

SOFT COAL MEN ALMOST AGREE

Peace Seems Now Practically Assured.

WORK PENDING MINERS' VOTE

Probable in Some States —Movement to Amend Sherman Law.

NO SUSPENSION IN THE STATE

Cleveland, O., March 30.—The peace terms with one exception recommended by the sub-scale committee of the bituminous operators and miners of the four central competitive States was unanimously endorsed to-day by the joint conference. One class was dropped, owing to the bitter opposition of Western Pennsylvania operators. They refused to grant the five-hour-day for Saturdays. So serious did the situation become at one time that there was a fear the whole agreement would be disrupted. But in the interest of peace the miners withdrew that demand.

Within a few days the proposed contract will be submitted to the miners for ratification. The policy committee voted to recommend it and the submission will be a matter of form. The State president and International President White all say it will be endorsed by an overwhelming vote.

The contract is for two years. It is likely the Pennsylvania and Ohio operators will be permitted to work pending the vote. Illinois and Indiana operators desire a suspension. The Kentucky operators have notified the miners they will not operate their mines until a joint convention of that district has been held and a satisfactory agreement made. This may take thirty days. The miners of the southwest and possibly those of Iowa, will work.

An important move for rehabilitation of the mining industry was taken. A commission was arranged for that will use every effort to have the Sherman anti-trust law amended so that it does not include the mining industry and also to have the anti-trust laws of the States changed to eliminate the industry from their provisions. It is claimed that the reckless waste try are due to the present destructive competition. It was also charged that the same forces prevented the miners obtaining a fair wage scale.

This Commission will consist of two members of the miners' and operators' organizations in each of the coal States. The anthracite mine owners will aid the movement, President Haer having, it was said, pledged his assistance.

Another duty of the proposed commission or board will be to determine whether after this agreement expires there shall be a suspension pending negotiations. The members will meet two weeks before the Miners' International Convention in 1914 and prepare a recommendation for operators and miners.

No Suspension in State.

Members of the Western Kentucky Mine Operators' Association who were in Louisville to confer with a committee of Western Kentucky miners in regard to reaching an agreement on a wage scale and working conditions, returned to their homes Saturday. It is expected that the miners will return to Louisville Tuesday and an immediate conference will be held.

"We do not expect to close the mines while negotiations are on for a wage scale and working conditions," declared an official of the association. "The operators believe the mine workers will agree to return to work until all matters are adjusted. The committee of soft coal miners and operators have reached a tentative agreement at Cleveland, and we expect to hear from the representatives of District Twenty-three, which is in Western Kentucky, on Tuesday. We do not anticipate much trouble."

There are 4,500 miners employed in Western Kentucky.

Cyclone in Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., March 30.—A cyclone struck Riverside, a lumber town east of Birmingham, on the Southern railway, yesterday about dusk. Ten houses were damaged or unroofed, including the depot. Two negroes were seriously hurt by flying debris. Two houses were destroyed at Lincoln, a few miles from Riverside.

SEVEN ARE TO DIE IN CHAIR DURING APRIL

Paducah, Ky., April 1.—Probably a double electrocution will take place at the Eddyville penitentiary on April 19. Willard Richardson, who killed John Violett, in Carlisle county, a few weeks ago, is sentenced to die on this date. The other is man named Ellis, a former deputy sheriff of Harlan county, who killed a magistrate and another court official as the result of an argument over a local option election. In all there are seven to die in the electric chair in April. The others are: Charles and James Smith, negroes, who killed a white man and then skinned him to hide his identity, from Mason county; Cal Mirabel, of Bell county, who killed his wife and another man; Ewing Howling, of Breathitt county, who killed a white man and a negro woman during a fit of anger; John Bowman, of Lebanon, who, with another, killed their joint partner. Some of these cases have been appealed.

YOUNG MAN PROMOTED
—FORMER HARTFORD BOY

Mr. Victor Matthews, son of the senior editor of The Herald, has been promoted from foreman to manager of the Grundy County Daily Gazette, an old established paper published at Morris, Ill., a manufacturing city about 60 miles south-west of Chicago, at a nice increase in salary. He takes the place made vacant by the recent death of Mr. Eugene H. Fletcher, one of the ablest newspaper men of the country. Young Matthews has only been in the employ of the Gazette people about a year and is not yet 24 years old. They seem to have confidence in him.

Victor started in The Herald office a little over 8 years ago as "printer's devil." After a few years experience he struck out for himself and soon became an expert linotype operator, working in several large cities of the country. He is a Methodist, a Union man and an Odd Fellow. He has evidently done just what his daddy did when he arrived at voting age—crossed up the "old man" in politics—for the Gazette is a staunch Republican paper. He has always "made good" in his work and we are predicting he will continue to do so.

INDIANA MAN NAMED AS OFFICIAL CROW KILLER

Hedford, Ind., March 30.—William Williams, a Mitchell man, has been designated by the United States as official crow killer, and is authorized to furnish the Government crow gizzards at the rate of fifty per month for one year.

He has also an optional contract to furnish a like number of English sparrows' gizzards. The gizzards are to be used in work that is being carried on by the Agricultural Department with a view of determining the economic value of the birds.

Williams will get his supply of crow gizzards from the big crow roasts northeast of Mitchell, where the birds gather at night by the thousands for roosting purposes. Five cents per gizzard is the price to be paid Williams.

SCHOOLHOUSE MEETINGS TO ORGANIZE FARMERS

Madisonville, Ky., March 30.—Schoolhouse meetings of the tobacco growers of Hopkins county have been called by F. D. Coffman, county chairman of the Stemming District Tobacco Association. At these meetings delegates will be elected to a mass meeting in Madisonville, April 6, when plans will be launched to perfect an organization this year. Only a few of the farmers in the county joined the association last year and the officials decided to start the movement early this year in an attempt to get 75 per cent. of the growers. Indications point to a doubling of the crop this year.

Ollie True to His Friends.

Senator-elect Ollie James is to be commended for standing by his old friend and co-worker, Champ Clark, in the latter's campaign for the Presidential nomination. He would not have been the faithful, true friend of Clark had he deserted Clark. —[Paducah News-Democrat.

AN ODD PLAN TO KEEP A SECRET

Was Adopted By An Unfortunate Girl.

ENGAGED WOMAN AT PADUCAH

To Care for Baby, Then Leave It With Her at a Little Station.

THEN SENSATION DEVELOPED

Blackford, Ky., March 30.—A wee baby girl, apparently about a month old, left in the railroad station at Blackford, brought out a most unusual story of the love of a mother for her child, and how she sought to cover up the circumstances of the birth of the baby by a unique plan.

Tuesday morning Miss Maudie Tador, a pretty school teacher, and her younger sister were seated in the railroad depot. When the morning train stopped, a neatly dressed woman with dark hair, wearing a blue dress and tan shoes, rushed into the station. She carried a small baby wrapped in a bundle of clothes. She stepped up to the younger Miss Tador, and inquired if she would hold the baby for a few minutes. The girl did so, and then the woman quickly boarded the train and was gone.

After the train departed the two girls retained the baby. Miss Tador expressed sympathy for the child, and it is said expressed a desire to adopt it. Marshal Leitchfield secured a description of the woman, and wired to Sturgis to place her under arrest. At Sturgis she was taken from the train, and on the afternoon train was carried back to Blackford.

The officers believed that it was only a case of a mother deserting her baby, which is done frequently. However, when the woman reached Blackford she told a most unusual story. She gave her name as Mrs. Ashby, of Paducah. According to her story, Miss Tador came to Paducah, where the baby girl was born on the night of February 9. Mrs. Ashby said that she kept the baby, but Miss Tador wanted the girl. In order that she might obtain possession of the child without telling the real story, it was agreed for Mrs. Ashby to leave the child with Miss Tador's sister, with whom arrangements had been made to be at the station with Miss Tador. After giving Mrs. Ashby an opportunity to escape, Miss Tador was to tell the story of the child being deserted by the mother, and to adopt it.

The story of Mrs. Ashby was corroborated by letters, which contained the instructions for her to bring the baby to Blackford. The officers then accented Miss Tador, who broke down and acknowledged the story. She accused a man residing in Uniontown as being the father of the baby. After hearing the stories of both women, Mrs. Ashby was released and permitted to return to her home.

Miss Tador is twenty-three years old, and for several years has been employed as a school teacher near Blackford. She has always been highly respected. Miss Tador's parents reside at Wheatcroft, where she went yesterday. She has possession of the baby girl.

SHOOTS BROTHER-IN-LAW
—SAYS HE ABUSED WIFE

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 30.—Frank Lile, a north Christian farmer, surrendered himself to Magistrate Fuller, after dangerously wounding his brother-in-law, Finley Reynolds, two miles west of Crofton. The shooting occurred at Reynolds' home, where Mrs. Reynolds was lying ill in bed. Lile accused Reynolds of neglecting and mistreating her, and he alleges Reynolds attacked him with an ax. Lile fired three times, one shot lodging in Reynolds' body, and two passing through his arm. Lile was released on bond.

THE STANDING OF THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

Taft .....	270
Roosevelt .....	37
Cummins .....	6
La Follette .....	70
Uninstructed .....	10

THE BULWARK OF HUMAN LIBERTY

Is 'In the Stronghold Of Our Laws.

THE MENACE OF OUR COURTS

Of Justice Often Found in the Unreasoning Demands Of the Mob.

A VITAL MATTER DISCUSSED

CHAPTER I.

Wherever society has existed, there has been an unceasing struggle between Liberty and Authority. The history of man is but the history of the conflict between these two principles. The Magna Charta, the Bill of Rights, with all the checks, safeguards and guarantees of fundamental laws, are but treaties of peace between these two forces, defining boundary lines, for the protection of the inalienable rights of the defenseless minority against their invasions. Ages have been unable to quench the spirit of encroachment. When Authority is allowed to cross the line, intolerable oppressions are sure to follow, and if Liberty is the aggressor, then society itself is endangered. It has been, and still remains, a fruitful field for the remorseless demagogue, and what the world has suffered from these opposing forces, could never be told. Don't tell me that sacred rights of a helpless minority, for whose protection constitutional government is mostly intended, are always safe in the hands of an exalted, impulsive, intolerant and often tyrannical majority. No difference where power is lodged, whether in the hands of majorities, kings or despots, so long as human passions influence activities, there is danger of, there is sure to be, oppression. We have outlived the doctrine that the King can do no wrong and that the Pope and majority are infallible. We have not far to travel to find forcible illustrations of the flagrant, wanton abuse of power by an inflated, intolerant and reckless majority, who out-James James I. In their strident and exalted notions of their divine right to rule. Nor can we palliate or extenuate the outrage of hugging the delusion that only the disorderly made up the mob, for that's just what it was. Time was, and doubtless will be again, when good average citizens were swept from their feet by sudden excitement, and led to violence by some infamous rabble-rousers. To say nothing of shocking mobs, in the first quarter of the last century Kentucky furnished a most fitting and striking example of the dangers of popular abuse of power which practically wrecked the State. Collins says of this remarkable instance of public aberration: "They exhausted, one by one, all the follies it was possible for a community to commit."

So intent were they on ruthlessly violating those sound and well-recognized principles of limitation of the arbitrary power of majorities, they forced an extra session of the Legislature to impeach the Appellate Judges; to recall and disgrace, without even the form of trial, the Judges whose wise, just and patriotic decisions had roused their passions and nullified their revolutionary designs. Not content with this flagrant outrage, they ordered the "creatures of their power and the flatterers of their caprice" to enact so-called relief measures which were in direct contravention of both the State and Federal Constitutions, producing absolute judicial anarchy—fine proof, to be sure, is this, of the security of the precious rights of the helpless, when entrusted to the keeping of an excited majority!

At that time there were about sixty thousand voters in the State. Forty thousand of these had just voted for the overthrow of Constitutional Government and the utter disregard of their highest court, in whose keeping were the most sacred of human rights. But the heroic Judges of the "Old Court," true to themselves and their State, whom the frowns of autocrat, the threat of assassin, the whisper of a gold-laden briber or the clamor of mob could not swerve from duty, stood like lions at bay in the path of the howling mob till its better judgment prevailed.

This it did not take long to do, for the very next year, seeing, in the meantime, the consequences of their folly, they reversed their great majority and rushed back to the support of the "Old Court" who had saved them from themselves and their State from ruin. "This memorable contest between the Constitution and the passions of a popular majority," says Chief Justice Robertson, a great lawyer, a profound jurist and a wise statesman, who took part in the contest, "proves the efficiency of Kentucky's constitutional structure, and illustrates the reason and importance of judicial independence." It demonstrates that if the Appellate Judges had been dependent upon a bare majority of the people, the constitution would have been paralyzed, justice dethroned and property subject to rapine by the tumultuous passions of numerical power. And its incidents and results not only commend to the gratitude of the living and unborn, the proscribed judges and compatriots who dedicated their time and talent for years to the rescue of the Constitution, but also impressively illustrates the object and efficiency of the fundamental limitations of the will of the majority—that is, the ultimate prevalence of reason over passion, of truth over error, which, in popular government, is the sure offering only of time and sober deliberation, which it is the object of constitutional government to insure."

What a fine gospel message to the thoughtless and unwary who love their country and its sacred institutions, but are fascinated by the dubious heresies of their adventurers and eloquent liars! Why, the two extremes, angels and devils, could maintain direct government; the one by the smallness of its tribe and the other by the perfection of its character.

How strange that the very laws that govern human affairs, ordain that success and prosperity shall produce dissensions and disunion! Beware! Remember there are lions in Wall Street as well as bulls. The one whose interest it is to hoarse business, the other to boost it, and that it is said any golden jackass can take any fortune. It was not Philip, but Philip's gold that conquered Greece.

(Continued next week.)

VICTIMS OF REINDER TO BE REMEMBERED

The Hawesville Clifton says: Arrangements have been made for the erection of a monument to the memory of those who lost their lives when the steamer Reinder blew up at the Cannellon landing just before the war. Sixty-five or 70 people lost their lives in this catastrophe, and all are buried in one long grave in the Hawesville cemetery, the ill-fated boat having been towed to this side just following the explosion. The grave has been so grown up in bushes that it will be difficult to locate the exact spot, but the shaft will be erected of concrete as near the exact spot as possible. L. S. Powers and W. S. Thomas are figuring with Will Overby to do the work, and as soon as the weather will permit it will be made and erected with proper ceremony.

An Item of Home Interest. Charles Gormley, 307 Maxwell street, Lexington, Ky., has lately been cured of kidney and bladder trouble. He says: "I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and the good they were doing, and after taking them a few days, the pain left my back, the tired feeling passed away, and I am glad to recommend them." For sale at all drug stores.

A Little Difference. Occasionally something "gets by" even the watchful copy editors of the Associated Press. Not long ago a story came into the Atlanta office, was edited and put on the wire for the Southern division, and got as far as Louisville before the urgent "kill" caught up.

The story concerned a fight between two Southern gentlemen in a rural community. They used a scythe, a corn knife, a shovel and a butcher knife to express their real feelings concerning one another.

One combatant died on the field of battle, and the other, badly cut, died soon after he had been removed from the gory scene.

The A. P. story told all the depressing and bloody details, and wound up with this sentence:

"It is thought these two men had some sort of misunderstanding."

Fact and Fancy.

"Grent Scott, Maria, that's a darling dress!"

"It's a fancy costume."

"Well, if I were you, I wouldn't stick a little closer to the fact."

Ragged wounds are painful and cause much annoyance. If not kept clear, they fester and become running sores. BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is an antiseptic healing remedy for such cases. Apply it at night before going to bed and cover with a cotton cloth bandage. It heals in a few days. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Kentucky.

PENSIONS FOR CONFEDERATES

Will Now Be in Order, Under New Law.

WILL RECEIVE $10 PER MONTH

Some of the Salient Features and Requirements of the Measure.

PAYMENT FOUR TIMES A YEAR

Capt. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, the newly appointed Commissioner of Confederate pensions, has opened his office in Frankfort and soon will be ready to receive applications for pensions. The necessary blanks will be printed and sent out to the applicants. Much preliminary work must be done before the Commissioner is ready to compile his lists of pensioners.

Salient points of the new Confederate pension law, enacted by the recent General Assembly, follow:

It grants a pension of $10 a month to all disabled Confederate veterans who have been actual bona fide residents of the State since January 1, 1907, and who actually served one year, and to their widows, provided they were married prior to January 1, 1890. Any soldier who was prevented from serving at least a year because of wounds received or disease contracted, is also entitled to the provisions of this act.

All a so-called "disabled" within the meaning of the law who have attained the age of 65 years. However, no person is entitled to the benefits of the act who is able to earn a support by manual labor, or by reason of his knowledge or skill in any profession, trade or craft or who possesses a net income to amount of $300 a year, who has property to the value of $2,500, who is living on the property or income of his wife, or whose support is otherwise provided for to the extent of $300 a year.

The Governor, Auditor and Secretary of State constitute the State Pension Board, and their decision is final in the granting or rejection of all applications.

Applications are filed in the County Court, and the Judge shall bear witness in open court to the applicant's good character, while the County Attorney represents the Commonwealth, as in other matters. A copy of the application, with a brief memorandum of the facts, is forwarded to the Adjutant General. The application must be accompanied by affidavits of two physicians or one physician and two lay witnesses as to the claimant's inability to earn a living wholly or in part by manual labor.

Payment is made four times a year; on the fifth day of August, November, February and May.

The Adjutant General is empowered to employ a pension examiner at $1,200 a year, and a clerk at $900.

The law provides for a fine of not less than $100 or more than $300 for charging any veteran more than $5 for prosecuting his claim. The money granted the veterans under the act is exempt from any attachment or levy.

Each beneficiary under the act is required to furnish every year a certificate that there has been no change in his financial condition which would render him ineligible for a pension.

Inmates of the Confederate Home are not entitled to the benefits of the law.

The new law will apply to a number of old soldiers in Hartford and Ohio county.

Constipation brings many ailments in its train and is the primary cause of much sickness. Keep your bowels regular, madam, and you will escape many of the ailments to which women are subject. Constipation is a very simple thing, but like many simple things, it may lead to serious consequences. Nature often needs a little assistance and when Chamberlain's Tablets are given at the first indication, much distress and suffering may be avoided. Sold by all dealers.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A CHILD HAS CONVULSION

In an article on the care of children in the April Woman's Home Companion, Dr. R. H. Dennett, a great New York specialist on the diseases of children, tells as follows what to do when a child has a convulsion:

"When a child is suddenly seized with a convulsion, proceed as follows: First—Loosen the clothing, but take off only the shoes and stockings. Second—Place the child upon a bed or table, with his legs hanging over the edge from the knees down. Third—Put his feet and lower legs in a pail of hot water, to which has been added one tablespoonful of powdered mustard. If you have not mustard, use hot water alone; be very careful it is not hot enough to burn. Fourth—Put an ice-cap to the head; lacking an ice-cap, use plenty of cracked ice done up in a towel. Fifth—Give an enema of warm soap-suds. Repeat it if it is not retained. Sixth—As soon as the child is able to swallow, give a large dose of castor oil."

NOW EGGS ARE CHEAPER —GOOD THINGS TO EAT

In the March Woman's Home Companion, Fannie Merritt Farmer says that many requests have come to her for dishes in which eggs play an all-important part, and she has been waiting for spring, when eggs are low in price, to publish several recipes of good dishes containing eggs. Following are two of her recipes.

"Vienna Cake—Beat the yolks of four eggs until thick and lemon-colored, and add gradually, while beating constantly, one cupful of fine granulated sugar. Then add three tablespoonfuls of cold water. Put one and one-half tablespoonfuls of corn-starch in a cup, and fill the cup with pastry-flour (sifted once). Mix with one and one-fourth teaspoonfuls of baking-powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Combine mixtures, and add one teaspoonful of lemon-extract and the whites of six eggs, beaten until stiff. Turn into a buttered and floured angel-cake pan, and bake in a moderate oven from thirty-five to forty minutes. Remove from pan, and cut cross-wise so as to make four layers of equal thickness. Put between the top and bottom layers chocolate mocha filling. In the center and over top and sides of cake put vanilla mocha filling, and sprinkle entire surface with nut brittle.

"Mocha Filling—Scald two cupfuls of milk in double boiler. Mix one-third cupful, each, of sugar and flour, and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Add milk gradually to mixture, and cook in double boiler fifteen minutes, stirring constantly until mixture thickens, and afterwards occasionally; then cool. Wash one cupful of butter, and work until creamy, then add cooled mixture and one and one-half teaspoonfuls of vanilla. To one-third of the mixture add one ounce of melted sweet chocolate, for the chocolate mocha filling."

The Danger After Grip

Lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys, often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by James H. Williams.

It's Leap Year.

Maude—I've something to tell you. I'm engaged to Jack.

Ethel—I am not surprised. Jack never could say "No."

DOUBLY PROVEN.

Hartford Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This grateful citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed.

Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. A. L. Alms, 607 Locust St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and consider them a superior kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills promptly relieved back-ache, difficulty with the kidney secretions and pains in the back and top part of my head. We have every confidence in them."

The above statement was given May 9, 1907, and when Mrs. Alms was interviewed on February 20, 1912, she said: "I have not used Doan's Kidney Pills of late, as the cure they effected some time ago has been permanent. You are at liberty to continue publishing my statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

INFANT'S BRAIN TRANSFERRED

To the Skull of an Afflicted Man.

OPERATION WAS SUCCESSFUL

And Without a Parallel in the Annals of Medical Surgery.

HE LIVES TO USE NEW BRAIN

Baltimore, Md., March 28.—An operation that in the history of science has never had a parallel, either in delicacy or in skill, has been performed at Johns Hopkins Hospital by Dr. Harvey Cushing, world renowned brain specialist, and the patient, as a result, is on the road to recovery, thus indicating that the operation, which until a month ago was thought practically impossible by the best authorities on brain disorders, will prove a success.

The patient, William Buckner, a prominent real estate dealer of Cincinnati, came to Baltimore November 25d last, suffering with a peculiar affection of the brain. For weeks before his arrival in this city he had been in a state of semi-coma, except at intervals, when he would awaken and seem well. When it was least expected, he would fall over and again lapse into unconsciousness.

The disease asserted itself about seven months ago when Mr. Buckner was making a deal with one of his customers. He brought the conversation to an abrupt end and walked, absent-mindedly, from his office to his home. On arriving home he seemed to be in full possession of his faculties, but during the evening meal he fell from his place at the table to the floor unconscious. He was revived, but several days later began to complain of feeling a continual drowsiness. This drowsiness terminated in a complete state of coma within a few days.

On his arrival here Mr. Buckner was placed under the care of Dr. Cushing. His case was a puzzling one, but after X-ray examinations, during which photographs of the brain were taken, Dr. Cushing discovered that a portion of the brain had decayed and frayed tissues were causing the healthy sections gradually to become affected. The case at that time seemed hopeless, although Mr. Buckner seemed in no immediate danger of death.

It was evident, however, that if something was not done it would only be a matter of time before the entire brain was destroyed, resulting in death for the patient. Mrs. Buckner was informed of the existing conditions just when Dr. Cushing was ready to give up hope. She pleaded with the physician, and he at last agreed to try an experiment in an effort to save Mr. Buckner's life.

Dr. Cushing decided to procure the brain of another patient as soon after death as possible and to transplant a portion of it in the skull of Mr. Buckner. The brain had to be healthy and from as young a person as possible.

The transplanting of the brain and the procuring of it were two widely different things, however, and this was the difficulty confronting the physician when one of his colleagues casually mentioned that a child born in one of the wards had just died of inanition. Here was the opportunity.

Dr. Cushing hurried to the ward, and after obtaining permission, removed the brain. Assistants had rushed Mr. Buckner to the operating room and prepared him for the ordeal.

Then in view of about a score of professors and students Dr. Cushing performed his greatest operation. After administering the anesthetic he removed the back of Mr. Buckner's skull and with great care took out the entire brain, which was placed on a piece of linen beside the head, and could be seen to pulsate with each heart beat of the patient.

The diseased portion was then very carefully severed from the minor brain, and while Dr. Cushing was severing the diseased section, another surgeon was transplanting the infant's brain. The major brain was left untouched. After the transplantation the entire brain was restored to its proper place and the section of the skull which had been cut out was replaced.

Mr. Buckner stood the operation exceedingly well, and a week ago it was thought that he was well enough to leave the institution.

With his wife at his side he was removed to the home of relatives in Charlottesville, Va., but several days ago his condition became grave and he was sent back to the Johns Hopkins Hospital. Dr. Cushing to-day replanted the tissues of the newly inserted member and late to-night Mr. Buckner was said to be considerably improved.

ROOSEVELT ENDORSES HIS OWN CANDIDACY

Among American citizens of commanding prestige and influence, Theodore Roosevelt alone has endorsed Theodore Roosevelt's third-term candidacy.

No great lawyer has endorsed it. No great jurist has endorsed it. No great educator has endorsed it.

No great publicist or student of government has endorsed it.

No great author has endorsed it. No United States Senator of the first rank has endorsed it.

No Representative in Congress of the first rank has endorsed it.

No Governor whose political influence extends beyond the borders of his own State has endorsed it.

Hardly half a dozen newspapers of power and importance have endorsed it.

A few days after the formal announcement of his candidacy, Mr. Roosevelt finds himself surrounded exclusively by third-rate and fourth-rate politicians and notoriety-seekers.—[Evening Democrat, Kankakee, Ill.]

W. J. Bellamy, Clarksburg, Ky., gives particulars of his son's recovery. He says: "My boy of sixteen had bronchial trouble ever since he was a baby, and it gradually grew worse until we feared consumption. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and soon there was such a marked improvement that I got a second bottle and this will, I think, make a permanent cure. The first bottle cured his stubborn cough, and I think this wonderful medicine saved my boy's life." For sale at all drug stores.

"Kith and Kin."

"What were you and Mr. Smith talking about in the parlor?" asked her mother.

"Oh, we were discussing our kith and kin," replied the young lady.

The mother looked dubiously at her daughter, whereupon her little brother, wishing to help his sister, said:

"Yeth, they wath, mother. I heard 'em. Mr. Thmlth asked for a kith and she thaid, 'You kin.'"

ACTUAL STARVATION.

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief Which Should

Interest You.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them. The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food.

We believe we can relieve dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 25c package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Main Store—James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Ky.

ISSUE OF BONDS FOR GOOD ROADS

Seems to be the Most Practicable Plan.

SUBJECT FAIRLY DISCUSSED

By a Practically Minded Citizen in Interest of All Concerned.

SURE A LIVE TOPIC JUST NOW

The road question is a live topic just now in every part of Kentucky. The State press abounds with references to bad roads and withal there is an increasing demand for improved highways and for more substantial results from the expenditure of the moneys raised by taxation for roads and bridges.

A citizen of Marshall county, writing to the Benton Tribune-Democrat, says there are miles of good roads in that county for which the officials should be given great credit, but there are other miles on some of the most public highways that are "no better than they were twenty years ago when they were worked with the shovel and hoe." This leads him to discuss the problem of betterment as follows:

"As it is generally understood, the county pays about $15,000 per year in taxes to its road and bridge fund. Say that ten thousand is used for roads. There are five magisterial districts in the county, which makes $2,000 per year for each district, that is year after year dumped in mudholes in the shape of dirt to make more mud. Bad system, is it not? Now is there not a better, more practical way? Let us advise with each other; then let the people advise with the county officials, all of whom are always more than willing to listen to the people. Highway improvement costs money. There must be adopted some method of financing the project. Usually the money derived from the ordinary road and bridge tax is wholly insufficient for a proper improvement. The custom of private subscriptions or donations is not economical and not fair. Poll-tax road-building is practically worthless. The right way to build highways is with borrowed money—by issuing bonds against the community benefited. Every up-to-date road law provides for this method of financing. True, the interest on these bonds makes the improvement cost more than were the cash available, but even at that, a wisely chosen district properly improved will show a most unusual return on the investment in good roads. This return will be in increased property values; but it will also be in decreased farm expenses and increased farm profits. Furthermore, it must be remembered of the entire amount spent for highway improvement, 80 per cent. goes immediately to the men who pay the tax for labor, material, etc. In other words, by voting a hundred-thousand-dollar bond issue for roads, you vote to take one hundred thousand dollars out of the bank and put nearly all of it in immediate circulation in your community. This is the only business method to finance a road-building system that has proved successful anywhere up to the present time."

There is a lot of good, sound, common sense in these suggestions. Unfortunately in most of the counties of Kentucky there is unreasoning fear of a bond issue, for almost any purpose and the results of recent efforts to vote bond issues for road improvements have not been encouraging. Where thousands of dollars annually are being wasted on mud roads, as is the case in many of the Kentucky counties, it would be manifestly in the interest of economy and efficiency, to vote bonds and make permanent improvements, thus reducing the cost of maintenance.

Counties in Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia are issuing bonds right along. In Tennessee alone some twenty or more counties have voted favorably on bond propositions in the past year. In Indiana most of the road building at present is being done by townships and these townships in recent years have voted many thousands of dollars for highway improvement. Indiana has the largest mileage of good roads, leading all the States of the Union, and it is by such methods that she hopes to retain her supremacy.

It has been a long time since any Kentucky county issued bonds for road construction. It is certain that some of them are standing in their own light by not doing so. The bond issue is the only possible method of getting good roads for the people now on earth as well as for succeeding generations. And over against the trite argument that bond issues tax prosperity, is the clinching counter-argument that they will benefit posterity and posterity ought to be willing to help pay for the benefit.—[Courier-Journal.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Hartford Lodge No. 675, F. & A. M.

Whereas, Almighty God, the Great Architect of the Universe, has called another brother from labor on earth to refreshments above, Brother Dudley Ford, who departed this life March 14, 1912.

He was a member of John J. Davis Lodge No. 389, but lived in this jurisdiction and was a frequent visitor to this lodge. Therefore, be it Resolved, That we extend fraternal sympathy to our sister lodge, in the loss of one of its most faithful and beloved members, and to the family, our tender and heart-felt sympathy; for your husband and father was our friend and brother, and we are deeply sensible of the aching void caused by his decease. We point you to the widow's and orphan's God—the Mason's God—for true comfort, and may He ever have you in His holy keeping.

Resolved, Second, That in the death of Brother Ford, the members of John J. Davis Lodge No. 389, have lost a true brother, the wife a loving and devoted husband, the children a patient and forgiving father, the church a pious and devout member, and the community a good, law-abiding citizen.

Resolved, Third, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our records, a copy sent to the family, a copy to John J. Davis Lodge No. 389, and a copy sent to each of our county papers for publication.

A. C. YEISER,
J. H. PATTON,
C. M. CROWE,
Committee.

One of the best points in favor of Foley Kidney Pills is the comfort and relief they give to elderly people. Mrs. R. D. McGee, 301 East 5th street, Owenboro, Ky., is in her 76th year and says: "I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and began taking them, and they commenced to act at once, and to-day my kidney and bladder trouble is all gone." For sale at all drug stores.

Such Stuff as Dreams.
Van Swager—"I say, old man, you have no idea what a stunning new car I've got! Why, it runs so smoothly, you can't feel it at all! Not a bit of noise, no chugging—you can't hear a sound! And it's positively odorless—can't smell a thing! And as for speed—why, it fairly whizzes! You simply can't see it go by!"

Van Wagner—"H'm, old man! Must be a fine car! Can't feel it, can't hear it, can't smell it, can't see it. How do you know it's there?"—[Judge's Library.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

JUST FOOLING THE FARMERS

The Business of Roosevelt And Taft.

THE GIANT HARVESTER TRUST

Is Still in the Saddle, Despite Hypocritical Efforts to Dislodge It.

GUILT WAS LONG SINCE FIXED

On June 20 Attorney General Wickersham assured the House Committee on Rules that the Government would take action against the Harvester Trust. This trust, formed in 1901 with a capital of $50,000,000 and increased in 1902 to $120,000,000, is a Perkins-Morgan-Rockefeller monopoly, created to fleece the farmers. At its inception it took in 14 of the biggest competing concerns in harvesting and other farm implements. It expended $1,400,000 in the purchase of two of these plants, which it dismantled and abandoned.

In June, 1906, the trust pleaded guilty in a suit brought by the State of Arkansas and was fined $20,000. In January, 1909, the Kansas Supreme Court affirmed a verdict fining the trust $12,600. The conviction in this case was based on the testimony of President McCormick, of the trust, that it controlled 95 per cent of the harvesting machinery and that he hoped to get all the rest.

The Supreme Court of Missouri found this trust guilty of violating the anti-trust law, fined it $50,000 (afterwards reduced to $25,000) and ordered it ousted from the State if it failed to comply with the conditions of the judgment. The trust promptly took the case up to the United States Supreme Court.

The Post-Dispatch has shown conclusively that President Roosevelt, when in office, delayed for five years the proceedings threatened by the Department of Justice. In the early part of 1907, when Roosevelt was denouncing "malefactors of great wealth," Attorney General Bonaparte had in his possession proofs sufficient to warrant proceedings against the trust and its organizers. But after a visit by Perkins and McCormick to the White House, the case was pigeon-holed, on the ground that the Department of Justice was busy with other trust suits, but chiefly as a practical answer to the cautious question put by President Roosevelt, in a letter to the Attorney General, asking "whether we can afford to throw away the great influence of the Morgan interests which have been so friendly to us?"

But what has Taft done toward lifting this burden off the backs of the farmers? Absolutely nothing for three whole years. The Harvester Trust is still in the saddle. It is still fleecing the farmers on 95 per cent of all their purchases for agricultural machinery.

The guilt, corporate and personal, of this giant monopoly and its magnates, was long since fixed. Has Taft, any more than Roosevelt, placed the interests of the farmers above those of the Morgan-Perkins-Rockefeller monopolists?—[Saint Louis Post-Dispatch.

The correct treatment for cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, sores, lumbago, rheumatism or neuralgia is BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It is healing, penetrating and antiseptic, which is everything that is needed to effect a complete cure. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

A Magazine of Distinction.
For April, 1912, Lippincott's Magazine offers a dainty list of contents adapted to the exacting appetite of the spring. The complete novel is a cheerful, diverting, and delightful story, called "The Stolen Woman," by Eleanor M. Ingram, whose previous novels, "Stanton Wins," "From the Car Behind," and "The Substitute," were widely read and universally praised.

Besides the complete novel, the April Lippincott's gives a sheaf of short-stories, including "The Crucial Moment," by Charles Egbert Bradnock; "Her Own Country," by Elsie Singmaster; "Kings and Men," by Owen Oliver; "Lady's Choice," by Carl H. Grabo; "A Selen of Adam," by Ella Middleton Tybout; and "The Beautifying of Mrs. Bennett," by Harold Susan.

Other features of note are a long poem by S. Weir Mitchell, an important article on "The Necessity of Passports for Alien Women," by Alexander Otis; a charming appre-

Are You a Woman?

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

edition of "Uncle Remus," by L. S. S. Corbett Pickett; a paper on "The Prosperity of American Pliny-wrights," by Robert Grau; and a sparkling character sketch entitled "A Business Interview in Virginia," by Ellinbeth Maury Toombs. In the department, "Ways of the Hour," are brief, nail-on-the-head papers on "The Pity of the Sexes," an answer to Robert Hichens, by Herman Scheffauer; "The Curse of Climate," by Edwin L. Sabin; "What of the Aftermath?" by Forbes Lindsay; and "Style in Writing," by Thomas J. Masson.

Putting Him at His Ease.
"Good morning, Miss—ah—fath—that is—" begins the new son-in-law.

"Now, Jim," smiles the bride's father, "I know just how you feel. I went through it myself. I felt like forty kinds of a fool when I first tried to call my father-in-law 'Father,' and I said right then that if I ever had a son-in-law I'd not give him the same worry. Besides, if my father-in-law felt one-half the way I do when I hear you trying to get it over with, I believe he'd have done what I'm going to do. You call me 'Mister' or 'Say' or 'Bill,' or anything else you like, until the time comes when it will be natural for you to address me as 'Grandpa.'"

If you eat something which disagrees with you, don't let it work its own way through. It's a slow process and makes you feel bad. Get rid of it quickly by taking a dose of HERBINE. It drives out impurities in the stomach and bowels and you feel better immediately. Price 50c. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

Press Complimented.

A certain writer has said that no newspaper that took truth for its standard would make a success. The press might retain the compliment by remarking that no minister who told the truth about his congregation, alive or dead, would occupy the pulpit much longer than the Sunday following. The press and clergy go hand in hand with the whitewash brush, rosy spectacles, magnifying little virtues and kindly throwing little deformities into oblivion. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are partners in joint-making.—[Licking Valley Courier.

Easy.
Patient—Doctor, it hurts me to breathe. In fact, the only trouble now seems to be with my breath.
Physician—All right. I'll give you something that will soon stop that.—[Good Housekeeping.

AN OLD ADAGE SAYS

"A light purse is a heavy curse."
Sickness makes a light purse.
The LIVER is the seat of nine tenths of all disease.

Tutt's Pills

go to the root of the whole matter, thoroughly, quickly safely and restore the action of the LIVER to normal condition.

Give tone to the system and solid flesh to the body.
Take No Substitute.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR RHEUMATISM KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

YOU WANT A BETTER JOB?

That question will be asked you almost daily by business men seeking your services, if you qualify—take the Draughton Training—and show ambition to rise. More BANKERS endorse DRAUGHTON'S Colleges than endorse all other business colleges COMBINED. 48 Colleges in 18 States. International reputation. Banking, Typewriting, Penmanship, English, Spelling, Arithmetic, Letter Writing, Business Law—FREE auxiliary branches. Good POSITIONS GUARANTEED under reasonable conditions. Home Study. Thousands of bank cashiers, bookkeepers and stenographers are holding good positions as the result of taking Draughton's Home Study. CATALOGUE. For prices on lessons BY MAIL, write JNO. F. DRAUGHTON, President, Nashville, Tenn. For free catalogue on course AT COLLEGE, write DRAUGHTON'S PRACTICAL BUSINESS COLLEGE, Nashville or Memphis or Knoxville, Tenn., or Paducah, Ky., or Evansville, Ind.

BARNES & SMITH Attorneys At Law

HARTFORD, - KENTUCKY.
Messrs. W. H. Barnes and C. F. Smith announce that they have formed a partnership for the general practice of law, except criminal and divorce cases. Mr. Smith being County Attorney, is precluded from practicing such cases. Mr. Barnes will individually accept such practice. Offices in Hartford Republican Building, Hartford, Ky.

J. M. PORTER, Attorney at Law, BEAVER DAM, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties. Special attention given to a business entrusted to his care.

FRANK L. FELIX, Attorney at Law, HARTFORD, KY.

Will practice his profession in Ohio and adjoining counties and in the Court of Appeals. Criminal practice and Collections a specialty. Office in the Herald building.

OTTO C. MARTIN S. P. MCKENNEY

MARTIN & MCKENNEY HARTFORD, KY.

GENERAL INSURANCE.

LIFE, ACCIDENT, SICK AND FIRE
Will Also Bond You.

Otto C. Martin Attorney at Law HARTFORD, KY.

Office on stairs over Wilson & Crowe, opposite court house. Will practice his profession in all the courts of this and adjoining counties and Court of Appeals. Commercial and criminal practice a specialty.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Prevents hair falling. 50c and $1.00 at all druggists.

HAVE A ROUGH RIVER TELEPHONE

—PLACED IN YOUR RESIDENCE OR PLACE OF BUSINESS, AND PUT YOURSELF IN DIRECT CONTACT WITH——THE

Long Distance Lines

—TO ALL STATES.

FOR THE COMPANY'S SPECIAL CONTRACT TO THE FARMERS CALL ON OR ADDRESS

J. W. O'BANON,
Local Manager,
Hartford, Ky.
W. C. SEXTON,
Local Manager,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

Gillespie Bros.,

W. H. & J. F. GILLESPIE, PROPRIETORS.

BLACKSMITHING.

And Repair Work
Horseshoeing
A Specialty

HARTFORD, - KY.

ESTABLISHED 1868. If it's a ring, a diamond, a watch, jewelry or silverware, you can get the best quality at the lowest prices from the ### OLDEST MAIL ORDER HOUSE IN THE SOUTH.

For almost half a century we have served our customers the Southern trade. Write today for our free illustrated catalogue. Address:

G. P. Barnes & Co.,
Box 26 Louisville, Ky.
Every Article Guaranteed.

Notice

If you want clothes of any kind cleaned, call on the Hartford Pressing Club. We can clean any kind of clothes you have and guarantee that they will be satisfactory—if not, nothing will be charged. We are ready to clean your clothes for spring. We also have a new line of late samples and we guarantee a perfect fit. Call on us when in need of work in our line.

Hartford Pressing Club

Y. M. C. A. Bldg.
FRED NALL, Mgr.

The Hartford Herald

HEBER MATTHEWS, FRANK L. FELIX, EDITORS
FRANK L. FELIX, Pub. and Prop'r.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

They haven't yet stopped kicking Teddy's boom around.

Somewhat we do not hear anything from Uncle Joe Cannon these days.

The ladies are all expected to have their "hats in the ring" next Sunday.

It has been suggested to Mr.
Roosevelt that he have some of the tribe of Aliens included in the contesting delegation from Virginia.

One's memory goes back to the palm days of Joe Mulholland at reading some of the ebullitions of a Rockport, Ky., correspondent to the daily press.

The amount of money per capita is frequently determined by financial experts, but the amount of brains per capita seems to be an unknown quantity.

It's simply the sports of office that separates the Taft and Roosevelt forces—the old quarrel between the "ins and the outs." The old saying that "possession is nine points of the law" apply applies in this case, and it will be seen that the fellows in possession of the machine will override the other fellows to a finish.

Kentucky's delegation in Congress seems to be almost solid for Champ Clark for President. Among the leaders are Congressmen Ben Johnson, Ollie James and A. O.
Stanley. These men know the real worth of Champ Clark, both as a man and executive. It will be remembered that Congressman Johnson championed the cause of Champ Clark in his speech at Hartford last fall, and he was among the very first to declare for the Missourian.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, late Chief Chemist of the Department of Agriculture, has become contributing editor of Good Housekeeping magazine, which will hereafter be the exclusive channel for his writings on pure food, health and like topics which have so long been associated with his name. The securing of the output of his pen was a commendable stroke of enterprise on the part of Good Housekeeping, while it assures the public the continued benefit of the Doctor's valuable advice.

The Herald would appreciate it if any reader, at any time, would write us a short note, naming any certain article in all its contents which most interested him or her, and giving the reason why. We will be glad to print these notes.
This paper is carefully and studiously edited, with the aim to please as many as possible. We can't always know, unless told, just what suits. Any kind suggestion or information will be received in the same spirit. If interested, let us hear from you.

Editor Glenn, of the Madisonville Hustler, had a fearful dream in church a few Sundays ago, he says, in which he was surrounded by the menacing points of ladies' hatpins, apparently in battle array. He dozed because surrounded by enormous feminine headgear, being unable to see the preacher at all. No doubt Prof. Glenn was not alone in his sufferings, either there or in other churches of the country. Big hats are often a barrier to the spread of the gospel. They're awful pretty, but why not take 'em off in church?

"Do your buying at home" should be the by-word and the practice of every loyal citizen, no matter where he or she lives. Such a sentiment, backed up by the act itself, is the bulwark of prosperity and industrial success. Nothing is ever gained, in the final outcome, by sending or going away from your community for goods which can be bought right there. Often these goods look cheap, but prove very dear. In sending money away for supplies, you bid it an eternal goodbye, and such a practice, frequently indulged in, will impoverish any community.

We think a number of Republicans will join in the prediction that Theodore Roosevelt will be about the worst disappointed man in the United States after that Chicago Convention. It is hardly possible for him to realize it now, on account of his exaggerated ego. A few disappointed politicians who want a change in the Republican administration simply because they are down-and-out, persuaded Mr.
Roosevelt that he had only to announce to set the country on fire, and that touched his vanity. But, somehow the conflagration does not seem to be beyond control, and a Democratic shower of votes will sure quench the flames wherever they may spread, or whoever may be nominated by the Republicans.

THE VITAL QUESTION.

The last issue of "Our Country," the alleged agricultural paper published at Louisville, comes back with a broadside at The Herald, in answer to our editorial of February 21 issue. Let it not be forgotten just what started this controversy, which was the publication in The Herald of a little editorial as follows:

Is the little journal published at Louisville, called "Our Country" really a liquor organ, as has been alleged and snarled, or—is it?

Replying to this paragraph, "Our Country" went off into the mazes of the Bible, trying to prove, by Holy Writ, that liquor drinking and liquor selling is both endorsed and advocated by the Scriptures. Its last reply is in like vein, and it again quotes several passages of Scripture to sustain its contention.

It has been aptly said that "the devil can quote scripture," which is true. But the idea of the Bible, which stands for sobriety, correct living and everything which pertains to a sober life, being taken as authority for the sanction of promiscuous liquor drinking and selling, is preposterous. It is written large in the Holy Book, if not always in exact words, yet in meaning, "TOUCH NOT." It always looks pitiful to see anybody take the Bible and try to defend liquor drinking—the saloon propaganda—by it.

The only ground on which "Our Country" bases its argument is that people should drink liquor, but KEEP SOBER. As well tell a child that it is all right for it to play with fire, but it must never GET BURNED. There is not one man in a thousand who drinks liquor at all nowadays who does not frequently get drunk. Whiskey is the kind of stuff that won't bear fooling with.
With the present brand of the product, temperance has lost its meaning. The writers of the Bible had no knowledge of the sort of stuff that is sold for an intoxicant nowadays. But even with their superficial knowledge of drunkenness under the then prevailing use of soft wines, their warning is constant—"Beware!"

For every passage of scripture that "Our Country" quotes as a long-distance and feeble support of its stand for liquor selling and liquor drinking, we can—and did—show it a dozen passages where PROHIBITION—let it alone—is sounded down the corridors of time in a voice of thunder. In fact, the Bible fairly teems with its warning lessons of misfortune and death which befell those who tampered with liquor.

But all this is getting away from the original subject, to which we wish to hold our esteemed contemporary—is "Our Country" a liquor organ or not? By its attitude for years past and at present, and by its editorial policy, it appears that it is, and we invite it to answer this question, directly, or prove that it is not, by any reasonable process.
If it is not a wolf in sheep's clothing, let it show its horns.

Closing its long effusion, evidently, as ever, in behalf of the Liquor Trust, "Our Country" asks if The Herald is in favor of a law to prohibit the buying and using of liquor in "dry" territory. We say yes, provided "Our Country" will solemnly advocate the prohibition of its surreptitious sale in those territories, its shipment into same, from within or without the State.

But this controversy rests on only one question—which "Our Country" has not yet answered—is it or is it not a liquor organ, issued as a farm journal but backed by the liquor interests? Please come out in the open. Either plainly affirm or deny.

Great Weekly at a Low Price.
The Cincinnati Weekly Enquirer, a twelve-page paper recently transformed into the size and appearance of a daily, will be furnished in connection with the Hartford Herald at only $1.35 for the two papers.
This price stands good on renewals for The Herald. The Weekly Enquirer is an ideal newspaper, containing a big variety of reading and is especially suited to the farming classes. It is Democratic and progressive. This is certainly a low price for a lot of good reading.

S. C. R. I. Heds and Black Orpingtons.

Stock from $1.00 to $2.00, eggs from good mating $1.00 and $2.00 per 15. Baby chicks 25 cents each.
Phone 99A

MRS. A. S. CHINN,
Beaver Dam, Ky.

The present Catholic population of the United States is placed at 15,015,569, and that of Kentucky at 158,945.

JAMES TO LEAD CLARK
FORCES IN KENTUCKY

An Aggressive Campaign Being Planned—Probable Date Of Convention.

Washington, March 31.—Conferences between distinguished Kentucky Democrats in Washington today developed the ground work for a formidable Champ Clark organization in the Blue Grass State, in which the following developments of the day will be powerful factors:
Mayor W. O. Head, of Louisville, declared for the Speaker for President.

Senator-elect Ollie M. James will act as campaign chairman for the Clark forces.

A date close to June 15 is favored for the State Convention.

Mayor Head arrived on a morning train and found State Chairman Henry R. Prewitt's name on the Willard Hotel register. The pair went into conference with Representative J. C. Cantrill and Mr.
James, after which Mayor Head and Mr. Prewitt went out to the Speaker's home, where Mr. Head pledged his earnest support. Mr.
Prewitt being in Washington in his official capacity, and for the purpose of learning what date the Kentucky Congressmen prefer for the State convention, would not say publicly what assurances if any he gave the Speaker, nor is Mr. Cantrill ready just yet to announce himself a Clark man. Nevertheless a prophecy that they will both be among the powerful members of the Clark organization in Kentucky can be hazarded without very great risk.

SOME HOT SHOTS FROM A REPUBLICAN PAPER

Oh, Teddy, what makes you so non-consecutive?

If Teddy was given a third he would want a fourth term.

Will it be an inauguration or a coronation next March?

The Kingdom of America! Great guns and big sticks!

If Teddy was made Monarch of America, Uncle Joe would make a fine looking old Duke.

Roosevelt may be a great and wise man, but he is not the only pebble on the beach and he shouldn't be encouraged to think so.

Roosevelt is making a tremendous effort to accept the nomination for President, but he will get it where the chicken got the axe.

The man that thinks he can make and unmake Presidents would soon think he could make himself King. Don't encourage such dam-phoolery.

Roosevelt is great on the recall.
He would like to recall some of the things he did, while President, to the laboring men and to the colored soldiers, and various other capers too numerous to mention.

[Green River Republican, Morgantown, Ky.]

Notice.

All persons having claims against the estate of Willie P. Pirtle, will present the same to me at Hartford, Ky., properly proven, on or before May 1, 1912, or they will be forever barred.

This April 1, 1912.

IRA N. PIRTLE, Admr., 1413 Of Willie P. Pirtle, deceased.

Surprise Birthday Dinner.

A surprise birthday dinner was given to Mr. Leslie Hoover last Saturday, the 30th, it being his 35th birthday. Those present were: Mr.
Leslie Hoover, wife and baby, Belva, Mr. Glenn Stewart, wife and two children, Cecil and Milton, Mr. Lee Wade, wife and baby, Mr. Jesse Taylor and wife, Mr. H. H. Harris and wife, Mrs. Sis Hoover, Mr. Oscar Wade, Mr. Lee Johnson, Misses

Stimulate Children?

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently."
Then ask him about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a strong and safe tonic for the young. Not a drop of alcohol in it.

Always keep a box of Ayer's Pills in the house. Just one pill at bedtime, now and then, will ward off many an attack of biliousness, indigestion, sick-headache.
How many years has your doctor known of Ayer's Pills? Ask him all about them.
Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Lora and Emma Hoover, Master
Liston Hoover, Mr. Harden Owen,
Mr. Edward Harris, Misses Treadle and Jessie Taylor, Mr. General Hoover, Misses Ermine and Fanny Harris. All came with well filled baskets and a fine dinner was served.

MR. DOOLEY'S RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION EXPRESSED

"Tiddy's doin' a good job in knockin' out thim blatherskite Southern dillegates, be-gorra, illicited be thim scoundrelly office-holders," remarked Mr. Dooley to Mr. Hennessey.

"He didn't object to 'em in 1904, though," said Hennessey, "nor in 1908, did he?"

"He did not," said Dooley. "But why did he not? Becas in 1904 they was supportin' a pure path-riot, and in 1908 they was support-in' a man selccted by a pure path-riot. That's why."

"Yes," said Hennessey, "and in 1912 they're supportin' the same man selccted by the same pure pathriot in 1908. It ain't consistent."

"Hennessey," said Dooley, "you're a jackass. I might charactize you be a shorter and uglier word, and, b'gob, I will—you're an ass. The fate of the Nation's at stake and ye talk about consistency! There's only one man who can rule Ameri-ka!" and Dooley thumped the bar with his big fist. "And there's only wan issue worthy to be considered in such a crisis, d'ye understand?"

"What's the issue?" asked Hennessey in an apologetic tone.

"Dillegates!" roared Dooley.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas, by the unexplainable acts of Providence it was decreed that we should give up our esteemed brother, Sir Knight Willie P.
Pirtle, while with sorrow we meditate upon his death, yet we feel that he has only been transferred from this earthly Tent of ours to that Divine Tent on high, which is presided over and ruled by the Great Commander, whose edicts and commands we do not understand, yet, do not question.

We feel and know that in the death of Sir Knight Pirtle, Hartford Tent No. 99, K. O. T. M., has lost a faithful and valued member,
one whose loss we deeply deplore, his wife and babe have lost a faithful and affectionate husband and father and with his dear wife, we know that his widowed mother, brothers and sisters will miss and mourn the going of Willie to that great beyond, that great Tent, in entering which, we must all travel the road which Willie has passed over, and safely made the last goal.

To this great and Divine Tent we point with a ray of hope as the place for our final reuniting with dear Willie, and all of our loved ones.

For all of those who, by specialties, had claims upon Willie, we pray Heaven's richest and most merited blessings and beg them to look on and beyond the dark cloud which at first obscures our vision, for there is surely a ray of hope, a bright spot beyond, and another hand to beckon us onward and upward.

With all of his loved ones we deeply sympathize, fully knowing that his loss is keenly felt, and can not be replaced.

Resolved, by Hartford Tent No.
99, K. O. T. M., that the foregoing be spread upon our records, that a copy be tendered the family of the deceased, and that a copy be furnished to each of our local papers for publication.

J. C. BENNETT,
WILL RILEY,
W. S. TINSLEY,
Committee.

Gen. Buckner Hale and Hearty.
Munfordville, Ky., April 1.—Gen.
Simon Bolivar Buckner is celebrating his eighty-ninth birthday to-day. Among his guests are Capt.
Ellis, who was an aide on his staff;
the Hon. Reuben Miller, of Owensboro, and Miss Virginia Mitchell, of Virginia.

The General expects to be present at the marriage of his granddaughter, Miss Gertrude Belknap, of Louisville, to Donald Curry Lee, of New York, which will take place Saturday afternoon, April 27.

GARNETT AND PREWITT
COME OUT FOR CLARK

Washington, April 1.—Attorney General James Garnett, of Kentucky, announced to-day his gesto that Kentucky Democrats should support Speaker Clark for the Democratic nomination for President.
Mr. Garnett said:

"Mr. Clark is a Kentuckian—one we are all proud of. He is entitled to the support of every Kentucky Democrat and I am convinced he is the strongest man that can be nominated at this time.
This is the first chance we have Bolt Goods? Listen!

Yes To make good Clothes you must have good Materials.

Our shelves now gleam with bright, cheerful dress goods. Our colors are the proper shades for the season. We keep the quality of our dress goods "upright;"
we keep the prices "down-right" low.

Many merchants are careless about buying trimmings and buttons "to match;" we are careful.

We take care that everything we sell shall please our customers. We remember when we make a sale that our customer will have many things to buy a whole life long.

CARSON & CO.

INCORPORATED.

Hartford, Kentucky.

FARMERS' MARKET PLACE TO BUY AND SELL

Hay, Corn, Oats, Stock Peas, Millet, Clover Seed, Timothy, Red Top, and all kinds of Field Seeds. Also International Sugar Dairy, and Horse Feed. Sucrone Dairy and Alfalfa Horse Feed, and Poultry Supplies.

RAPIER GRAIN & SEED CO.,
OWENSBORO, KY.

Phone No. 562.

had to elect a real Southern President and I believe the Kentucky Democrats will take advantage of this opportunity.

Chairman H. R. Prewitt, of Kentucky, as expected, formally declared himself a Clark man to-day.
"I think he ought to be and will be nominated," said Mr. Prewitt.
"He is a strong and regular and can carry Kentucky and the nation."

Socialist Convention.
Indianapolis, Ind., March 30.—
The Socialist convention will be held at Indianapolis on May 12.

Card of Thanks.
The wife and relatives of William P. Pirtle wish to extend their most earnest appreciation to the neighbors, friends, Maccabees and all who so kindly assisted them in the last illness of their loved one.

THE FAMILY,
Hartford, Ky., March 30, 1912.

For Sale—Town property, vacant lots, cottages and two-story dwelling.
A. C. YEISER & CO.,
Hartford, Ky.

By a vote of 222 to 208 the House of Commons rejected the conciliation bill which would have given the franchise to 1,000,000 women.

Subscribe for The Herald—$1 a Year

Single Comb
Buff Orpington

Eggs from Prize Winners at Kentucky State Fair, 1911. Have mated up three pens from which I will sell Eggs at $1.50, $2.00 and $5.00 per setting of 15. Will book orders now for shipment later. Send for mating list—it's free. Will also sell a few laying Pullets at $2.00 each. Satisfaction guaranteed.

R. D. Brooks, Beaver Dam, Ky.

TO THE Farmers:

Time will soon be at hand for you to begin tilling your soil. If you need anything in the Plow line, we have a stock that cannot be excelled to do the work.

Blount's Steel Plows and Oliver's Chilled Plows and repairs of all kinds. Also Wire and Woven-Wire Fencing can be had at this place.
Your trade is solicited.

LIKENS & ACTON
Hartford, Kentucky.

GO TO Albert Oller
FOR Carpenter and Repair Work
TIN WORK
Pump and Furniture Repairing Soldering and Saw Filing, Baggy Tops Covered and Lined.
You'll find him in the Dr. John Mitchell office on Main Street.
Beaver Dam, Ky.

OLD PAPERS FOR SALE at The Herald office. Nice and clean, tied up in bundles. Five cents a bundle, three for ten cents.

EASTER TOPICS

TO be sure! Everybody wants to be well dressed from all over on Easter morning, and we are the people to dress you right. If you doubt us, just come and see, and we will prove to you that we have the REAL goods at the correct prices. New Dress Goods, New Silks, New Trimmings, New Slippers, New Hosiery—in fact everything new that would make you feel new on Easter morning.

Mrs. Sara Collins Smith

A lady of large experience, has charge of our Millinery Department. Call and see her. She will be glad to see you, and show you much in headwear that you will not find elsewhere. Don't forget this and Remember it Pays to Trade with a House that Saves You Money.

FAIR & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS
HARTFORD, -:- KENTUCKY.

Rev. A. W. Dodson, of Oklahoma, is visiting his son, Mr. John Dodson, living near Sunnydale. It will be remembered by some of our readers that he lived in the Palo neighborhood for some time, but moved out West some years ago.

Rev. C. F. Hartford and family, recently of Allensville, Ky., have come to Hartford to live and will occupy the Hardwick property, corner of Mulberry and Union streets. We gladly welcome them into our midst.

Mr. John J. Williams, a former Hartford boy, who for several years has held a lucrative position in Chicago with the Novelty Candy Co., has been transferred to the Memphis, Tenn., office, where he has been given charge of the shipping office.

Mr. Wallace Riley, manager of the Hartford Mill Co., has received his diploma from a well known veterinary school and is now a full-fledged veterinary surgeon. His certificate shows a splendid general average on his final examination of 96 per cent.

Mrs. Dorcas Addington, city, mention of whose serious illness was made in these columns last week, is no better. Mrs. Nancy Taylor, of the Liberty neighborhood, and Mrs. Lydia Miller, Beaver Dam, are at the bedside of their sister, Mrs. Addington.

The game of basket ball at Beaver Dam Saturday night, between the first and second teams of Hartford and Beaver Dam, resulted in defeat for the Hartford first team, and shortly after the second teams began playing, a dispute arose and the contest was abandoned.

Mr. George W. White died at his residence in the old fair ground addition last Thursday morning, after a long illness, covering several months. He leaves a wife and four small children. Services were held at the residence Friday and interment at Oakwood followed.

A movement is on foot, in charge of Mr. A. C. Yeiser, to buy the Hartford Fair Grounds from the present owners and form a stock company of the new concern in order to start the Ohio County Fair up again. It is a worthy movement and deserving of the greatest success.

Easter services at the court house Sunday morning. Sermon by the pastor at 11 o'clock, subject: "The Resurrection." Special music. Epworth League. Easter service at 6:30 p. m., presided over by Miss Katie Pendleton. Preaching at 7:15 by the pastor. Everybody invited to all services.

Dr. J. S. Fitzhugh, Island, Ky.; Messrs. J. D. Cooper and N. P. Kelley, Fordville; J. A. Bellamy, Whitesville; C. E. Fleener, Bofah, Ky.; R. S. Jackson, Beaver Dam, Route 1; E. F. Duke, Dundee, Route 2; W. E. Newbolt, city, and S. T. Brown, Hartford, Route 4, were among the Herald's callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nofsinger left Thursday morning on the M. & E. for Hazard, Ky., where they will reside in the future. Mr. Nofsinger having purchased an interest in two drug stores in that city. During their several years residence here, Mr. and Mrs. Nofsinger made many friends who regret very much to give them up.

The Ladies of Section 2 of the Methodist Church will give an entertainment at Dr. Bean's Opera House next Friday night for the benefit of the new church building fund. A laughable mock trial for breach of promise and a play by several young ladies will be the features. There will be good music.

Eld. Roy L. Brown, the noted evangelist, accompanied by his wife and son, will begin a series of revival services at the Christian church here, immediately after his preaching the baccalaureate sermon for Hartford College graduates on May 12th. He is a famous preacher and should draw large crowds.

One pair of good heavy horses for sale. BLACK & BIRKHEAD.

A PASSING SUGGESTION TO THE CITY COUNCIL

In behalf of the tax payers we would suggest to the City Council of Hartford that it is their duty to show to the public the exact expenditure of every dollar of the annual revenue, as the statutes of Kentucky hold that councilmen in cities of any class are responsible to the people for their every action and expenditure. To insure such responsibility the Kentucky statutes in section 3555, subdivision 7, defining the duties of the City Treasurer, provide as follows:

"Every three months the city treasurer shall make a financial exhibit, giving itemized statement of all receipts, the sources of such receipts, together with a statement of all disbursements and the purposes of such disbursements, and have the same spread at large upon the records of his office, and shall annually prepare such an exhibit and have the same published in some daily or weekly newspaper having a general circulation in said city."

HOPEWELL.

April 1.—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Taylor gave the young folks a social last Friday night in honor of Mr. Bird Penrod, of Penrod, Muhlenberg county, who is home on furlough from the army and now stationed at Detroit, Mich. He is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Misses Lissie and Girtle Moore of Taylortown, spent last Friday night with Miss Margaret Taylor.

Mr. Allie Ford, of St. Louis, made a short visit here last week on business.

Mr. Jack Taylor visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Taylor, of Hartford, last Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. W. D. Shull, Joe Brown and C. G. Taylor sold 100 pounds of chickens at Echols last week.

Mr. Strother Engler, of Booneville, Ind., who had been visiting relatives in Greenville, Ky., came to Mr. L. S. Engler's last Monday and will spend a few weeks with him.

Mr. J. I. Clark and son Wilbur spent a few days last week with relatives near South Carrollton.

Mr. Porter Hunley and Bill Phipps, of color, have bought Mr. Eugene Herrel's farm, paying the rise of $700. They will divide the farm.

Fiscal Court in Session.

The Ohio County Fiscal Court convened in court hall here yesterday for the April term with the following Justices present: B. S. Chamberlin, O. E. Scott, John H. Miles, J. C. Jackson, M. C. Cook, Thomas Sanders, Grant Pollard and J. L. Patton. The court will likely be in session the remainder of the week.

Baird—Chamberlin.

Mr. Sherman Chamberlin and Miss Lorene Baird were united in marriage by Rev. Wesley on the afternoon of March 27th, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Baird, of the Alexander neighborhood.

Several relatives and friends were in attendance.

Mrs. Chamberlin is the attractive daughter of Mr. James Baird and an excellent young woman.

Mr. Chamberlin is a very promising young man of good standing and a son of Esq. Benj. S. Chamberlin.

The bridal party left immediately for the home of the groom, where a hountiful repast awaited them. Their many friends wish for them a bright and prosperous future.

To Trade—Piano for horse. Hartford Music Co., M. A. Faught, Mgr.

Mrs. Mary A. Duke Dead.

Mrs. Mary A. Duke, who was stricken with paralysis on the 23d ult., died at her residence in Hartford last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. After funeral services conducted by Rev. Ely Wesley at No Creek M. E. Church at 11 o'clock a. m. Monday, her remains were interred in what is known as the "Old Mill"—or No Creek—burying grounds, by the side of her first husband, Obed Bennett, who preceded her about thirty-one years ago.

The deceased, who was in her sixty-first year, had been a member of the church for over a half century. She leaves surviving her, a husband, Mr. S. E. Duke, and five children, two daughters, Mrs. Wm. A. Brown and Miss Gladys Duke, Hartford; three sons, Capt. Wm. E. Bennett, Fort Lawton, Washington; Messrs. R. E. Duke and R. L. Duke, Hartford, Mr. R. E. Duke being one of the proprietors of the Hartford Republican.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

R. S. Chamberlin, Hartford, Route 7, to Lorena Baird, Hartford, Route 5.

Chas. A. Lee, Olaton, to Lena E. Fielden, Olaton.

C. H. Farmer, Fordville, to Clara Taylor, Hartford.

Jno. O. Sandbach, Fordville, to Melvina Watson, Horton.

W. R. Cooper, Hartford, Route 6, to Tillie Lee Minton, Hartford.

Warren Simpson, Rosine, to Ellie Wallace, Rosine.

In repeating his indorsement of the candidacy of Speaker Clark for the Presidential nomination, Senator-elect Ollie M. James declared his intention to try to take to Baltimore a solid Kentucky delegation for the Missouriian.

Subscribe for The Hartford Herald.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Makes Home Baking Easy

With minimum trouble and cost biscuit, cake and pastry are made fresh, clean and greatly superior to the ready-made, dry, found-in-the-shop variety, and danger of alum food is avoided.

DISTRICT MEETING OF THE TOBACCO GROWERS

To Be Held at Owensboro April 11th—County Meetings Saturday.

The district meeting of the Green River Tobacco Growers' Association will be held in Owensboro on Thursday, April 11, for the purpose of transacting such business as may be brought before it at that time.

A call has been issued for county meetings to be held on Saturday, April 6, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the district meeting.

The county meetings will be held at the following places: Owensboro, Calhoun, Fordville, Lewisport and Rockport, Ind. As the district meeting held in the spring is one of unusual interest, it is likely that there will be a good attendance. The following is the call issued:

The members of the Green River Tobacco Growers' Association, each county composing the association, are called to meet in regular session Saturday, April 6, at 1 o'clock, at the following places:

Owensboro, Daviess county. Calhoun, McLean county. Fordville, Ohio county. Lewisport, Hancock county. Rockport, Ind.

The meetings are for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent them at the district meeting in Owensboro Thursday, April 11, and to attend to any other business that demands their attention as a county organization.

Respectfully,
WALTER ATHERTON,
Sec'y. G. R. T. G. A.

Wm. P. Pirtle Dead.

Wm. P. Pirtle, son of Mrs. Della Pirtle, died at his home 4 miles northeast of Hartford, Thursday morning, March 28, 1912, after a short illness of typhoid fever. He leaves a wife and one child, a mother, two brothers, Ira N. and James Pirtle; two sisters, Mrs. Leslie Hoover and Mrs. Charlie Smith, besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn his death so early in life. He was born August 15, 1891, and hence had not quite reached his 21st year. He was a grandson of F. W. Pirtle, of Hartford, and John F. Wallace, deceased. His death occurred just 21 years almost to the day after that of his father Wm. N. Pirtle, in March, 1891.

His remains were laid to rest Friday morning in Oakwood, after a short funeral service conducted by Rev. Jolner, assisted by the local Maccabee Lodge.

Mrs. Sam E. Hill Dead.

A special from Lexington, Ky., to the Courier-Journal says:

Mrs. Samuel Ewing Hill died this (Friday) morning at the residence of Dr. F. O. Young, Mrs. Young being her daughter. Mrs. Hill had been an invalid from organic heart disease, but had seemed in better health than usual this winter, and her death was sudden and unexpected. She had been about the house as usual yesterday and retired apparently feeling well. About 5 o'clock this morning she felt faint. She was given some simple remedies and had fallen into a natural sleep until about 10 o'clock her daughter noticed that her breathing had become fainter, and upon making a closer examination, found that she had peacefully expired.

Mrs. Hill was before her marriage Miss Naomi Baird, of Hartford, Ky., where she was born, and her parents were Judge and Mrs.

A. B. Baird, her husband, Capt. Sam E. Hill, was a prominent lawyer, whose death occurred about eight years ago. Three daughters, her only children, survive Mrs. Hill. They are Mrs. F. O. Young and Mrs. A. B. Lancaster, of Lexington, and Mrs. Albert Francis, of New York City. Mrs. Hill was a member of Christ Church Cathedral and had a large number of friends and relatives throughout the State.

Mr. Dan M. Duncan Dead.

Mr. Dan M. Duncan, one of the county's well known and most highly respected citizens, died at his residence, McHenry, last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock of chronic appendicitis, with complications. After funeral services conducted by his pastor, Rev. Montgomery, assisted by Rev. Hiram Brown, of the Presbyterian church, his remains were interred in the family burying grounds by the side of his first wife and children who preceded him.

The deceased, who was in his sixty-sixth year, leaves a widow, Mrs. Katie Hamilton Duncan, a son Wm. W. Duncan, McHenry, and three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Russell, Louisville, Mrs. Edgar Bailey, Greenville, and Miss May Duncan, a trained nurse, now with Railroad Hospital, Paducah, Ky., a sister, Mrs. James Kelley, Greenville, and a brother, Capt. David Duncan, of Bude City, Florida, besides a number of nieces and nephews.

Mr. Duncan was honorably discharged from the Union services at the close of the Civil War, after two years and six months services, having joined the day he became of sufficient age to permit him to do so. "Uncle Dan," as he was usually called, will be greatly missed in his community.

A. S. of E. Notice.

The Ohio County Union A. S. of E. will meet at the court house in Hartford, Ky., Friday and Saturday, April 5th and 6th. All towns are urgently requested to send representatives.

L. B. TICHENOR, Pres.
HENRY M. PIRTLE, Sec'y.

For Constipation.

Mr. L. H. Farnham, a prominent druggist of Spirit Lake, Iowa, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by all dealers.

—For The—
LATEST
—And Most—
UP-TO-DATE
—Creations in—Millinery
—SEE—
MISS POPPIE NALL
North
Corner of Court Square,
Hartford, Ky.

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL POINTS

Baseball and other reliable sporting goods of all kinds at Cleve Her's. See his window display.

Swift's Acorn Bacon 15c a pound, and Pure Hog Lard, 12 1/2c, at Riley's Meat Market.

WANTED—Two girls to help with cooking and housework. DR. L. B. BEAN, Hartford, Ky.

Attorney C. E. Smith, who has been quite ill of late, is getting a week or more past, is improving.

For the man who shaves, the Durham-Duplex Safety Razor is the thing. Price 35c. For sale by J. C. Her.

Beautiful Easter Cards handsomely designed and illustrated, can be purchased at Ohio County Drug Co.

Mr. McHenry Holbrook, who is attending school at Winchester, Ky., is spending a few days with his parents here.

Just for remembrance, why not send your friends a beautiful Easter Postal Card? See Ohio County Drug Co.'s display.

Miss Carrie Buchanan, of Paradise, Muhlenberg county, recently visited her brother, Mr. Oscar F. Buchanan, Hartford, Route 7.

The Ohio County Green River Tobacco Growers' Association will meet at Narrows, Ky., at 10 a. m., Saturday, April 6, 1912.
E. G. KIRBY, President.

Dr. E. W. Ford expects to leave this week for Chicago to spend a few weeks at the Polytechnic Post-Graduate Medical school in that city.

Miss Verna Ford, of Route 4, Hartford, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. James T. Davis, near Sunnydale, for some time, returned home last Friday.

Mr. W. D. Moore and wife, of Louisville, were in Hartford the past few days, visiting relatives. They contemplate going to New York City to reside soon.

Mr. H. Chanley, the mill man, Corralvo called at The Herald office while in town yesterday and subscribed for The Herald. Mr. Chanley came to Hartford with his friend, Mr. E. C. Brown, who secured a marriage license to marry Miss Sallie G. Barnard, which happy event will be consummated at the bride's home at Corralvo, to-day.

Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Hartford, is on the sick list.

Messrs. J. E. McCormick and J. H. Glenn, Hartford, gave The Herald a pleasant call Friday.

Mr. Claude Blankenship, of Beaver Dam, was a pleasant caller at The Herald office Wednesday.

Mr. Sam Morton, Corralvo, visited his son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Barnard, Monday and Tuesday.

Messrs. T. E. McQuary, Hartford, Route 6, and R. N. Duke, Hartford, Route 1, were pleasant callers at The Herald office yesterday.

Mrs. Jennie D. Hamilton, who had been spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Felix, Hartford, returned to her home in Greenville, Ky., Saturday.

Hon. G. B. Likens, Assistant Auditor of State, who had been spending a few days in Hartford looking after his law and financial business, returned to Frankfort yesterday.

Judge J. S. Glenn and Mr. J. H. Barnes, who had been spending the past ten days in Arkansas, looking after some real estate interests of Mr. Barnes', returned home last Saturday.

Messrs. Edgar Boehm and H. H. Slinnett, Hartford, Route 5; J. W. Mercer, Beaver Dam, Route 2; J. T. Wallace, Hartford, Route 2, were pleasant callers at The Herald office Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Wallace and little sons, Hughes and Elwood, of Mercer, Ky., came over a few days ago to visit Mr. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Sam Barnett. Mr. Wallace returned Monday, but his family remain.

Mrs. Sarah Collins Smith has accepted the position of milliner for Fair & Co. in the place of Mrs. Sallie Lee Bowden, who was recently called home at Leitchfield on the account of the serious illness of her mother, who suffered a stroke of paralysis.

A fair sized crowd greeted Dr. Albert Edward Wiggam, the noted lecturer, at Dr. Bean's Opera House last Friday night. His subject was "Dollars and Cents," which he handled with consummate skill and much interest.

The teachers of the Baptist Sunday School entertained their Superintendent, Dr. E. W. Ford, with a surprise lunch and social function at his office last Thursday night. It was a delightful affair and highly enjoyed by all present.

The Hartford Herald

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky.
 North Bound. South Bound.
 No. 132—4:05 a.m. No. 121—11:35 p.m.
 No. 122—12:28 p.m. No. 101—2:48 p.m.
 No. 102—2:48 p.m. No. 131—8:55 p.m.
 J. E. Williams, Agt.

REASONS WHY SPEAKER CLARK

Seems to Be Most Acceptable Candidate.

COULD UNITE THE FOUR WINGS

Of Party as Represented By Bryan, Hearst, Murphy
 And Underwood.

HOW MR. WICKLIFFE SEES IT

Speaker Clark is continuing to grow in the South as he has grown in the Western States. Representative Robert C. Wickliffe, of Louisiana, recently declared that Champ Clark will step from the Speaker's chair into the White House. Mr. Wickliffe in an interview gave his reasons for believing that Clark will be the nominee of the Baltimore Convention.

"Clark, Wilson and Harmon appear to be the three strongest candidates for the Presidential nomination, and I estimate their strength in the order named," said Mr. Wickliffe.

"Mr. Underwood, of Alabama, is unquestionably a great national leader. He possesses all the qualities necessary in the making of an ideal candidate and doubtless will receive many of the Southern delegates on the first ballot, but the unjust plea that the time has not yet arrived when a Southern man can be elected, will be strongly urged by the friends of some other candidates, which probably will cause him to fall of the necessary two-thirds vote.

"In analyzing the situation we must consider many factors and many angles. Take, for instance, Mr. Bryan. However he may be regarded in the South, no careful student of American politics can fail to recognize the power he wields in the West and Middle West. There are thousands of Democrats who believe absolutely in him, and he must be reckoned with as one of the Warwicks in the coming convention.

"Another potent factor is William R. Hearst, who through his chain of newspapers, coupled with an individual following, will give him undoubtedly a large influence in the convention. Charles F. Murphy in New York, whose organization is as powerful as ever, must be counted no small factor in view of the fact that the Empire State will have 94 votes in the Convention. Taking these powerful influences and recalling that it requires two-thirds of all the delegates elected to the convention to nominate, it will readily be seen that there will be no nomination on the first ballot. Mr. Bryan will fight Harmon to the uttermost. The Hearst influence will oppose Wilson, and doubtless Mr. Murphy will do the same. Delegates from outside the South will continue to urge the unjust plea against Mr. Underwood that the time has not come to nominate a Southern man.

"Who above all others can unite the four wings of the party as represented by Underwood, Bryan, Hearst and Murphy?
 "Has Bryan ever opposed Clark for the nomination? Has Underwood? Has Hearst?
 "On the contrary, Champ Clark

WELL KNOWN MINISTER

Restored to Health by Vinol

Rev. D. Schneider, who is a well known minister in Rice Lake, Wis., writes:

"I had a very severe stomach trouble last year from which I was kept in bed three months. I had engaged the services of a doctor, but to no avail. I then read of Vinol and determined to try a bottle. Before it was used up I was out of bed, and four bottles made me a well man. Vinol is a splendid medicine, and I can gladly recommend it."

Prominent men from all over the country do not hesitate to endorse this wonderful tonic.

For twelve years Vinol has been sold on the "money back" plan, and every year strengthens its popularity and proves by continued tests that it will do what we claim for it.

James H. Williams, Hartford, Ky.
 E. Wilbur Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky.

seems to have the confidence and respect of each of these powerful influences, and while only one of them has openly and unequivocally declared for Clark, it is believed to be true that the first Democratic Speaker of the House in twenty years is in favor with everyone.

"Bryan will never go to Harmon; Hearst will never go to Wilson; Bryan will never go to Underwood; Murphy will never go to Wilson. Under these circumstances it seems to me, therefore, that Speaker Clark is the Mirabeau of the political revolution which is taking place, destined to go from the Speaker's Chair to the White House."

IS IT ALL WORTH WHILE —THIS STRENUOUS GAME?

Is the strenuous life worth while? Is the strenuous game worth the candle? We rush and push, we pull and haul, we cut and slash, we jostle and jostle in the mad rush for wealth. We want more and more and more—always more. If we have forty acres we want eighty; if we have eighty we want a hundred and sixty; if we have a hundred and sixty we want three hundred and twenty; if we have a half section we want a whole section; and if we have a whole section then we want two or three dozen sections more. If we have a little printing office we long for a big one. If we have a small store we are ambitious for a large one. If we have a little bank we plan and plan, and dream and dream of the hope for a big one. If the minister is in a little town, he is looking forward to the time when he can get into the big one. And so it goes all along the way. We sacrifice our friendships; we forget our loves; we starve our minds and hearts for money, more money.

Is it all worth while? Is the woman in the big city, with pearls about her neck that cost half a million, any happier than is the little country girl with her dainty shirt-waist and pretty hair-ribbon? Is the big merchant happier than the small one? Does he get more of the sweets out of life?—[Quincy Daily Journal.

The Old School at Its Best.

It was in the early days of the railroad and Aunt Ruth had boarded the train for her first trip. Her maid had neatly arranged her carpetbag, handbox, and reticule around her, but there was some trouble with the engine, so that the train did not start at once. Aunt Ruth had spread out her ample skirts like an open fan, and her little feet were daintily perched upon a footstool. Just then the conductor passed through. Touching him lightly upon the arm, she said, "You may tell them I am seated and am ready to go now!"—[April Woman's Home Companion.

W. S. Bailey, McCreary, Ky., is willing to verify his statement as given herewith. He says: "My wife had a severe attack of la grippe that terminated in bronchitis. She coughed as though she had consumption, could not sleep, and her medicine gave no relief. She was advised to try Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and she continued using it until she had taken three bottles, which effected a permanent cure." For sale at all drug stores.

Spends Thrift.

Uncle Ezra—Do you think the money young Eph Hoskins made down in New York will last him long?

Uncle Eben—You bet it won't! He's going an awful pace. I was down in the General Store last night, and young Eph was writing hundred-dollar checks and lighting his cigars with them.

It Looks Like a Crime

To separate a boy from a box of Huckle's Arnica Salve. His pimples, boils, scratches, knocks, sprains and bruises demand it, and its quick relief for burns, scalds, or cuts, is his right. Keep it handy for boys, also girls. Heals everything healable and does it quickly. Unequaled for pills. Only 25 cents at James H. Williams.

Not a Bit Stingy.

The editor of the Ebon Times cordially invites all his political enemies and persons who have stopped his paper to come in and see him this week. He has small-pox.—[Monroe City (Mo.) News.

In cases of rheumatism, relief from pain makes sleep and rest possible. This may be obtained by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

Hat or Coat.

Fagan—Next time Ol pass wild a loidy, Hagan, ye've got to remove yer hat!

Hagan—And suppose Ol refuse? Fagan—Then, bedad, ye've got to remove yer coat.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
 FOR BACKACHE, KIDNEY AND BLADDER

UNKNOWN HEROES.

Heroism has in all ages called forth the plaudits of the multitude, but perhaps in no other age has there been such universally strong expression for heroic deeds as now.

Scarcely a day passes in which one may not find in leading newspapers the record of brave, heroic deeds, told in glowing words of praise. And as we read them, our breath comes more quickly, our hearts thrill, and we are filled with admiration for the courageous souls who in the face of many odds, have triumphed. It is right that we should reverence and honor those for whom no words of recognition and appreciation can be too strong. But it is also well for us not to forget those heroic souls who, without the inspiration of the plaudits of the people or the impetus of a marvelous course, surmount many obstacles. Many people have alone for many months, perhaps years, patiently and uncomplainingly met trials and difficulties a thousand fold harder to bear than bullet and shell on the battlefield.

In some beautiful cemeteries are monuments erected to the "Unknown Dead," the unknown brave boys who lost their lives in the late Civil War. We sometimes think it were well if in every town, village and country there should be erected a monument to the unknown heroes. What a great multitude it would represent. Here, a mother with a kind, smiling face and a cheery word to everyone, who helps the world along while she conceals from it a heart crushed and bleeding because her fair-haired boy whom she fondly hoped would be all her strength in her old age, has become wayward and indifferent and has left the old home to wander in a "far country." Perhaps there is a wife whose married life has been one long martyrdom because of the ruin wrought in the home by the drink habit to which her husband has fallen. She covers as well as she can the troubles and sorrows and disgrace, bravely facing the world, making most of life, and oftentimes eking out a scant living for herself and little ones by hard outside labor. And there is a man who patiently and uncomplainingly endures the annoyances of the home where there is constant friction and discord, even his dearest friends knowing nothing of the iron that has entered his soul because of the brave front he keeps.

A short time ago there passed away a most remarkable unknown hero whose life was so sunny, so strong and so brave that it makes us better men and women just to hear of her. Left fatherless at an early age, this little girl went to work in a factory, the mother finding what her frail strength allowed her to do outside the home. She remained in this factory until she was twenty, then she was a forewoman. Then she married a strong, fine young man three years her senior. Two years later their troubles came, the husband's sickness developing into tuberculosis. Shortly afterwards she began having trouble with her right foot, which soon had to be amputated. Three weeks later her husband died—this once young and strong and brave man was taken from her.

During all the time of her husband's illness she concealed from him all the troubles possible and went with smiling face intending to make their last days together their happiest ones. She succeeded as far as possible under the circumstances. After his death she began some work at home which brought her a small income. Oftentimes she would say: "Oh! I cannot be unhappy when God gives me the beautiful seasons to enjoy and a few friends to make me feel that I can be of some use. Happiness, I know, must come from within, and I shall try to make myself and others happy while I stay here."

How well she succeeded must be inferred, for many crowded into her little home to attend her funeral. Many testified to the great help she had been to them when they came to hard places in life, where they most needed her beautiful, strong influence.

Unknown heroes? Yes, the world is full of them in every walk of life; heroes to whom our souls should bow in reverence; whose influence should make us strong to endure and carry through life a hopeful manner and a cheerful face, thus lending strength to others.

ROOSEVELT'S PICTURE SOLD FOR THIRTY CENTS

Kansas City, March 28.—The highest bid on a $20 picture of Theodore Roosevelt at an auction at 1008 Grand avenue to-day was 30 cents, right in the town where the famous "poll vote" demonstrated his greatness. And this 30 cents was obtained only after much oratory and perspiration. Bidding on the Toddy picture was desultory.

The auctioneer pictured the greatness of the former President and then enumerated the fine points of his likeness in oil, until some ardent supporter muttered timidly "ten cents."

After five minutes of exhortation another insurgent, still more brave, piped "twenty cents." The auctioneer was encouraged. With one final effort he held the picture aloft and shouted "Who'll make it 30 cents?" Somebody did, and he got the picture.

POEMS YOU'LL ENJOY.

The Herald's Special Selections.

A SAILOR'S GIRL.
 If bluejacket poetry can be believed, the old saying that a sailor has "a sweetheart in every port" must be true. This is the message that The Torpedo, published by the bluejackets of the Atlantic torpedo fleet, gives to the public. The sailor who is responsible for re-establishing the old adage calls his effusion "The Little Girl at Home." The first and second stanzas tell of a few girls from many lands that the bluejacket has met, but in the third and last, the poet lets loyalty control him, and the Girl at Home comes into her own. These are the verses which were written for home consumption:

I have courted damsels Spanish,
 Dutch, Norwegian, Irish, Danish;
 I have faced in warmer climates
 All the wiles of eye and fan;
 I have seen the dsinty Gelsha
 Do her stunts in distant Asla;
 And the girl with jeweled anklets Twirl in dusky Hindoostan.

I have flirted with Castilian,
 German, Greek and dark Brazilian;
 I have played the game of Cupid
 Clear from Simla up to Nome;
 But for vitcheries seductive,
 Cooling, fetching, deft, destructive,
 There is nothing in this picture
 With the Little Girl at Home.

Be her station e'er so lowly,
 There's an incense sweet and holy
 In the spell her memory summons
 From the dim and distant past;
 There's a fragrance as of clover
 In the dreams that round her hover,
 And the nameless something whisp'ring
 That the bond will always last.

Other eyes may sue discreetly,
 Scarlet lips cajole so sweetly
 That the senses swoon and falter
 And the fancies idly roam;
 But, when all is said and noted,
 There's no loving so devoted
 As the subtle spell that calls one To the Little Girl at Home.

For Sale, Farms—All sizes, from 6 to 300 acres. We can please you if you want to buy land.

A. C. YEISER & CO.,
 Hartford, Ky.

For classy job printing: The Herald

TIME IS THE BEST TEST

No remedy without merit can long hold a place in public favor.

Ballard's SNOW LINIMENT

Has Stood the Test of Time.

Another proof of the great merit of this remedy is the continually increasing number of people who use it; not for some temporary ailment of the flesh, but as a regular family remedy. It is a standard that never fails when used for the purposes for which it is intended.

Try it for cuts, burns, bruises, sores, swellings, frost bites, chilblains, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica or the many external ailments of horses and dogs. It will do its work so quickly and effectively you will not be without it.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00.

James F. Ballard, Prop., St. Louis, Mo.

Use Stephens Eye Salve for Sore Eyes. It Cures.

SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY

Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky.
 Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

POLAND-CHINAS

If you need any good hogs, write me for my prices. I can furnish you with a good young sow with second litter of piglets, an excellent young boar, gilts ready to breed, and pigs 60 to 80 pounds. Prices will suit you.

B. P. Rock and Silver Wyandotte eggs from prize-winning birds.

F. W. Creager, CECILIAN, KY.

To Our Farmer Friends and Patrons:
 Now is the time to begin to anticipate your Fence wants. We have just received two car loads of the celebrated American Steel Wire Fence. We bought it right, so we can give you a very low price on any specifications you may need. Call and see us about your fence.
 Yours truly,

DUNDEE MERCANTILE CO., INCORPORATED
 DUNDEE, KENTUCKY.

CRACRAFT-LEICH MAGNETO TELEPHONES

The Telephone for Heavy-Loaded Lines.

By using this Telephone you can rest assured that the danger of a break-down has been reduced to a minimum.

Always ready. No repair bills. See samples and get prices.

A. E. PATE,
 Agent. Hartford.

NO BETTER TELEPHONES MADE Transmission Unexcelled POWERFUL GENERATOR AND SENSITIVE RINGER

BLOUNT'S "TRUE BLUE" STEEL BEAM PLOWS

6 1/2 TO 16 INCHES
 Acknowledged by all as the Plow of Quality LONGEST LIFE
 FINEST MATERIAL
 BEST WORKMANSHIP PERFECT FINISH

LIKENS & ACTON
 HARTFORD, KENTUCKY

Storm Cloud

No. 3451 A. S. H. B. A.

For the Season of 1912.

ire Red Eagle 28 Dam, Lettie Denmark 4537

STORM CLOUD

Will be found every day in the week at a barn on South Church Street known as the Allen barn on square south of Morton's Drug Store.

Fee Only $10 This Season.

For full particulars and breeding Address,

DEXTER @ BEAN,

Centertown, Kentucky.

Plenty of Good Reading
 In The Herald and it Costs You Only One Dollar a Year.

STORY OF BOSTON MASSACRE TOLD

An Event Which Started American Revolution

AGAINST MONARCHICAL RULE

Only Four Killed and Seven Wounded, But Meant Something.

START OF AMERICAN FREEDOM

One hundred and forty-two years ago occurred the affair known in American history as the "Boston Massacre," the real beginning of the Revolution.

Not for five years, it is true, were the "embattled farmers" to fire the shots that were to be "heard around the world"; but on that March day when British soldiers shot down the Americans, the blood was set a-boiling which was not to be cooled, but was to surge hot and hotter through the people's veins until the redcoats were driven from our shores and the despotism they represented no longer had a place upon American soil.

The "Massacre" was in a sense, hardly deserving of the name. Nine British soldiers fired into a crowd of some fifty or sixty citizens, killing four and wounding seven; not a very murderous affair, it must be confessed.

Nor is this all. The facts show that the citizens were more to blame for the affair than were the soldiers. On the afternoon of the day of the massacre the patience of the soldiers was sorely tried, but still they refrained from violence. Men and boys pelted them with stones, threw snow in their faces, ridiculed and cursed them, and still they held themselves in check. About 9 o'clock in the evening a sentinel on duty in front of the Custom House, knocked down a boy who was annoying him, whereupon a crowd gathered and began shouting "Kill him! Kill him!"

The commotion called out eight other soldiers, who soon took their places beside the sentinel. The crowd, now thoroughly angered, threw snow, stones and sticks at the soldiers and dared them to fire. The redcoats took them at their word and fired, with the results as given above.

The deed was done; American blood had been shed; and the drama that was to attract the attention of the world was begun.

It was not a question of who was to blame for the soldiers' action. That was neither here nor there. The great question was, "What were the soldiers doing on American soil against the will and wishes of the people?" The Americans were thoroughly loyal, and it was a time of peace. They had offered no resistance to the Crown, except in the perfectly legitimate way of petition and protest; and yet there were the soldiers, quartered upon them, menacing their liberties, threatening them with the vengeance of a despot. King 3,000 miles away, a King who would not listen to reason, but was trying to carry his point by a display of force.

And the King's armed men had shed the blood of the citizens! It is true they may have been provoked to do this, but they had no business being there. Their very presence invited provocation.

That was the way the Americans felt. And they were right.

And so the fire was lighted which was eventually to consume the last bit of monarchical red tape in this country and result in the establishment of American independence.—[Rev. Thomas B. Gregory in Chicago Examiner.]

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALES.

Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
Maude Black, Guardian, &c., Plaintiffs,
vs.

Dorcas Black, et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1912, in the above cause for the purpose of settling the estate of A. T. Black and distribution of the funds amongst the parties in interest after paying costs herein, including a reasonable attorney's fee, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 15th day of April, 1912, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

Three certain parcels of land in Ohio county, Kentucky, viz:

FIRST TRACT—Beginning at a white oak near Bethel meeting house; thence N. 20 W. 120 poles to a white oak and hickory; thence S. 20 W. 60 poles to three black oaks; thence S. 32 E. 23 poles to three black oaks; thence on a straight line to the beginning. Containing 33 acres, more or less.

SECOND TRACT—Beginning at a black oak and a white oak in Duke's line near Bethel church; thence N. 7 E. 124 poles to a black oak and white oak in Thomas Duke's line; thence W. 48 poles to three black oaks on the west side of Hines' Mill road; thence N. 21 poles to a hickory and black oak; thence W. 150 poles to four white oaks, gum and hickory; thence S. 152 poles to three black oaks and two hickories; thence S. 77 E. 20 poles to three black oaks, one of said Duke's corners; thence with his line N. 20 E. 60 poles to two white oaks and gum, another of said Duke's corners; thence with another of his lines to the beginning, containing by estimation 103 acres, excepting 90 acres of land sold to Montaville Gaddis, leaving balance 51 acres.

THIRD TRACT—Beginning at a black oak near R. H. Hayworth's lands on west side of branch about 20 steps; thence south to a hickory; thence S. E. to chestnut in the original Black line; thence with the old line between Gaddis and Black in north direction to Hines' Mill road at end of slat fence; thence east across said road to Gaddis' corner; thence north with his line to R. Hayworth's line; thence west with said Hayworth's line to the beginning, a black oak. Containing 35 acres, more or less.

Tracts designated as first and second tracts being the same land conveyed to A. T. Black by Rowan Holbrook, Commissioner, by deed of date July 31, 1901, and of record in the Ohio County Clerk's office in Commissioner's Deed Book No. —, at page —. And tract No. 3, designated above, being the same land conveyed to A. T. Black, deceased, by Samuel Gaddis, by deed of date October 10, 1900, and of record in Ohio County Court Clerk's office in Deed Book —, page —.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 25th day of March, 1912.
F. L. FELIX,
Master Commissioner.
Barnes & Smith, Attorneys.

Master Commissioner's Sale.
Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
C. R. Brown, et al., Plaintiffs,
vs.

Elizabeth Joyner, et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the February term, 1912, in the above cause for the purpose of dividing the proceeds arising from the sale of the land hereinafter described, as their interests may appear, after paying the costs herein, including a reasonable attorney's fee, I will offer for sale by public auction at the court house door in Hartford, on Monday, the 15th day of April, 1912, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

A certain tract of land lying and being in Ohio county, Kentucky, on the waters of Green river and bounded and described as follows, viz: Beginning at a stone, J. A. Hudnell's northwest corner; thence North with C. J. Moxley's line to the public highway; thence with said road, a western course to Luke Taylor's line; thence South with said Taylor's line to J. E. Brown's line; thence South to T. A. Kitchen's land; thence with said Kitchen's line to Green river; thence up said river to the mouth of a gut and to J. A. Hudnell's line; with the same to the beginning. Same containing 130 acres, more or less.

Being the same land conveyed by J. B. Ryan and wife to Mrs. Polla Baker, et al., by deed of date 16th of March, 1893, and recorded in Deed Book 20, page 259, and a part of the same land conveyed by J. E. Brown and wife to C. R. Brown by deed of date November 10, 1906, and of record in Deed Book 29, page 114, Ohio County Court Clerk's office.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 25th day of March, 1912.
F. L. FELIX,
Master Commissioner.
Barnes & Smith, Attorneys.

Master Commissioner's Sale.
Ohio Circuit Court, Kentucky.
R. A. Owen, Plaintiff,
vs.

J. H. Ambrose, et al., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the October term, 1911, and a supplement judgment rendered at the February term, 1912, in the above cause for the sum of $200.00, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the 28th day of April, 1909, until paid, subject to a credit of $43.67, as of date, January 1st, 1911; and the further sum of $276.40 with like interest from the 6th day of August, 1910; and the further sum of $265.00, with like interest from the 6th day of August, 1910, and — costs herein, I will offer for sale by public auction at the mill site on or near the J. H. Ambrose farm, on public road half way between Mt. Moriah church and Adaburg, on Saturday, the 13th day of April, 1912, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described property, to-wit:

One saw mill consisting of a boiler, engine, saw rig, belts and belt-
ing, tools and all other appliances and attachments belonging to said mill. Being the same property ordered and directed to be sold by this Court in a judgment entered in this cause on the 27th day of October, 1911, on the cross-petition of Mary Hamilton against her co-defendants.

This property will be sold as a whole and the proceeds, after paying his costs herein, will be applied, first, to pay the lien debt of plaintiff, R. A. Owen, on a one-third undivided interest in said property; second, to pay the debts, interest and costs of Mary Hamilton against her co-defendants, J. H. Ambrose and John Hamilton. The first amount herein is due plaintiff Owen, and the second and third amounts are due Mrs. Hamilton.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This 25th day of March, 1912.
F. L. FELIX,
Master Commissioner.
Barnes & Smith, Heavrin & Woodward, Attorneys.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured With LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as the cannot reach the seat of the disease.
Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials—free.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher

The April Woman's Home Companion.

Kathleen Norris, who became famous as the author of "Mother," begins a new serial novel in the April Woman's Home Companion. It is a love story laid in California. Other fiction is contributed by Mary Stewart Cutting, Carolyn Wells, Mary E. Wilkins Freeman and Mary Hastings Bradley.

Among articles of note in the April Companion are the following: An autobiographical chapter by Howard Pyle, the great American artist; an account full of personal details of the life of German's present Crown Princess Cecilie, who is twenty-five years old and the mother of four children; "Making the Most of Moving Pictures," an account of the 'moving-picture business as an educational factor; "Getting Rid of the House Fly," "Good Health a Business Asset," in which the author gives much practical advice, particularly to women who work in business for a living; and an Easter talk by the pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle in New York City.

The regular household, fashion and home decoration departments are filled with new, interesting facts and suggestions.

The Appearance of Evil.

"Sister Henderson," said Deacon Hypers, "you should avoid even the appearance of evil."

"Why, deacon, what do you mean?" asked Sister Henderson.

"I observe that on your sideboard you have several cut-glass decanters and that each of them is half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits."

"Well, now, deacon, it isn't anything of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I just filled them halfway with some floor stain and furniture polish, just for appearances."

"That's why I'm cautioning you, sister," replied the deacon. "Feeling a trifle weak and faint, I helped myself to a dose from the big bottle in the middle."

Almost a Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holtslaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at James H. Williams.

The Kansas Democratic convention instructed the twenty delegates from that State to vote for Champ Clark, with Gov. Wilson as second choice.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

900 DROPS

CASTORIA

A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of

INFANTS & CHILDREN

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC.

Recipe of Old Dr. SAMUEL PITCHER

Pumpkin Seed -
Aloe - Rhubarb - Sulphur - Licorice - Ginger - Mint - Cloves - Cinnamon - Peppermint - Sage - Tamarind -
Senna - Castor Oil - Sugar - Water -

A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

Fac-Simile Signature of
Dr. J. C. Fletcher
NEW YORK

At 6 months old
35 DROPS - 35 CENTS

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature

of

Dr. J. C. Fletcher

In Use
For Over

Thirty Years
CASTORIA

KENTUCKY
Light and Power Company

(INCORPORATED)

E. G. BARRASS, MGR.,
Hartford, Ky.

Will wire your house at cost. Electric Lights are clean, healthy and safe. No home or business house should be without them when within reach.

By This Sign

you know that you are getting the one preparation that has stood the test for over thirty-five years and still remains the Standard
tonic-food-medicine, used and recommended by the medical profession the world over.

Scott's Emulsion

is the embodiment of elements that make for good health and strength.

ALL DRUGGISTS

11-23

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR RHEUMATISM, KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

The Hartford Herald

M. H. & E. RAILROAD TIME TABLE AT HARTFORD, KY.

The following L. & N. Time Card is effective from Monday, Aug. 21st:

North Bound—
No. 112 due at Hartford 7:19 a. m.
No. 114 due at Hartford 3:40 p. m.

South Bound—
No. 115 due at Hartford 8:45 a. m.
No. 113 due at Hartford 1:46 p. m.
H. E. MISCHKE, Agt.

COAL OPERATORS TO MEET IN LOUISVILLE

To-Day, Followed By Joint Meeting With Representatives Of the Miners.

Owensboro, Ky., March 31.—D. Stewart Miller, of Owensboro, commissioner of the Western Kentucky Coal Operators' Association, has called a meeting of the operators for Wednesday in Louisville. Following the meeting of the operators it is thought that on Tuesday a joint meeting will be held with the representatives of the miners in reference to the suspension of the union mines in Kentucky.

It is understood that the best of feeling prevails between the Kentucky operators and miners, and it is not thought that the suspension will be of long duration. Saturday night the officials of the United Mine Workers of America issued an order leaving the question of a walkout at the Kentucky mines to the miners themselves. This was done on account of an active non-union competition in Western Kentucky. Since D. Stewart Miller, operators' association there has not been a strike of the miners in Kentucky, and it is the belief of the operators and miners that he can avert one at this time in Kentucky.

According to the last report on file has been commissioner for the 428,752 tons of coal produced in Western Kentucky during the year 1910. Of this amount 4,497,281 and 3,931,471 tons by non-union labor were produced by union labor mining in Kentucky, there were 8,430. In the northeastern and southeastern districts of Kentucky, both of which are non-union, 6,291,239 tons were produced in 1910.

WYSON.

April 1.—Miss Kitty Taylor, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Mr. Charlie Haugh visited his brother, Mr. John Haugh, of the Little Bend, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Cal Berryman has sold his interest in his sawmill to Mr. Harvey Taylor. Price not known.

Mrs. James Brown, whose illness has been mentioned several times, is worse at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davenport and Mrs. Lee Nelson visited Mr. and Mrs. Layton Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, of Paradise, Saturday and Sunday.

There was a singing at Mr. Carlus Taylor's Sunday afternoon.

Miss Dee Brown, who was called home on account of the fatal illness of her father, Mr. George Brown, has gone back to Texas to fill her position as cashier. Her mother aims to join her soon and make her future home with her.

Puts End to Bad Habit.

"Things never look bright to one with 'the blues.' Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feelings end 'the blues.' Best for stomach, liver and kidneys. 25c. James H. Williams, Hartford, Ky.

Thousands Given Schools.

Frankfort, Ky., March 30.—Auditor Bosworth to-day drew a warrant for $12,500 in favor of the State University and warrants for $7,500 for each of the State Normal Schools from appropriations for the schools made by the recent Assembly. The remainder of the appropriation will be paid in monthly installments.

Every family that has children is liable to have croup; invariably at night. If BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP is kept in the house, it saves going after the medicine at an inconvenient time and checks the attack promptly. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky., Donovan & Co., Beaver Dam, Ky.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Subscribe for The Herald. $1 a year.

Easter Opening

Easter Toggery For Men AND WOMEN

A Complete Outfit Awaits You Here.

New Coat Suits made in the latest styles and of reliable materials.
Excellent variety of Skirts and Waists.
Niftiest line of Hosiery and Slippers you ever saw.
Millinery that's right up to the minute at prices to suit every purse.
Ribbons, Neckwear and Gloves. Everything made ready to put on a grand Easter Dress Parade.

Our Men's Departments

make their usual appeal to the men not to be outdone by the fair sex, but to play their part well by making a good showing in the Easter exhibitions. We can dress you from head to toe.

Our New Suits are Made in the Latest Styles

and of the most serviceable fabrics. Tailored and trimmed in a way that they will retain their shape. Queen Quality Shoes and Oxfords speak for themselves. When you see them you won't have anything else.

Hats, Shirts, Half Hose, Neckwear and Collars must be added to make an outfit complete. We can dress you elegantly for Easter.

E. P. BARNES & BRO.,

BEAVER DAM, KENTUCKY.

A CUBAN IS CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING GIRL

At Paradise—Took Her to Evansville—Said Intended To Marry Her.

The Central City Argus of Friday says: Andrew Knight, a Cuban, who has been at work for some time on a farm near Paradise, is in jail at Greenville charged with kidnaping Verle Robinson, the 14-year-old daughter of Grant Robinson, near Paradise. Knight was arrested in Evansville on information furnished by Chief Langley, of this city.

Last Saturday night Robinson called Chief Langley by telephone and told him that his daughter was missing. Officer Langley at once rushed himself with the case, and found that the girl had boarded a boat at Rockport with Andrew Knight. He then telephoned Evansville to apprehend the pair, and they were arrested at the wharf when their boat pulled in. Robinson went after the girl and brought her back, while the Evansville police brought Knight.

The story told by the girl is remarkable. She says that Knight and another man came to her house and called her out, telling her that her father wanted to see her. When she stepped outside the door, she says a pistol was pointed at her head and her life was threatened if she did not go with the men. A shawl was thrown around her and she went with them, boarding a boat at Rockport about 9 o'clock at night. They did not leave their stateroom, according to information given the local authorities, until they reached Evansville.

Robinson claims that his daughter is only 14 years old and she does not look any older. If she is under 16 a charge more serious than kidnaping can be registered against the Cuban, and probably will be. In the meantime he is held on that charge. He did not resist arrest and claims that it was their expectation to get married in Evansville. The fact that the girl was taken from one State to another makes the offense doubly serious and renders Knight liable to prosecution in Federal Court.

When a medicine must be given to young children, it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

For Sale.

Sixty-five acres of well improved land in Rough river bottoms, 2½ miles west of Hartford. For further particulars, address X, care of The Herald.

Fine Subscription Offer.

The Louisville Evening Post (daily) from now until November 10, 1912, and the Hartford Herald one year, for only $2. Subscribe now!

BEAVER DAM.

April 1.—Mr. J. M. Taylor is receiving a carload of stock that will be shipped to Louisville.

Miss Ara Gardner has a music class at Cromwell this spring.

Born to the wife of Mr. Morgan James, a girl. Mother and child doing well.

Mr. Short Burgess has pneumonia.

Mrs. W. A. Austin, who has been quite ill of late with stomach trouble, is better and thought to be out of danger.

Mrs. Fred Taylor and children, of Princeton, Ky., were visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chapman, last week.

Mr. James Chick, living near Sulphur Springs, who has been confined to his room for three months, is convalescent and is spending a week in town with his daughter-in-law and grandchildren, Mrs. Annie Chick and children.

Misses Bessie and Elsie Alford made a trip to Canoyville last week to visit their uncle, Mr. Otis Likens. Mr. Orville McKlaney, who has been attending an electrical school in Columbus, Ohio, has finished his course and returned home, ready for business.

Mr. Doc Beard, who has been in the employ of the Planing Mill Co. for several years, has moved to his father's north of Hartford.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. John M. Chinn gave him a birthday surprise last Sunday, it being his 70th anniversary. His children and grandchildren were all present, except the children of Mr. Joe B. Rogers, who lives in the mountains. There were also present Uncle Walker Stevens and wife and Mrs. J. S. Chinn. His children spread everything good to eat on the table and John knew nothing of the affair until he was invited to the table. A pleasant day was spent by all present and Uncle John regretted that he could not eat like he did when he was in the army.

Death of An Infant.

A very strange death occurred Wednesday morning when the little five months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Parks, of near Heda, was found dead in its bed. The child was in perfect health Tuesday night apparently, and upon arising Wednesday morning Mrs. Parks did not disturb its sleep. About 9 o'clock she went to see about the baby and found it dead. Dr. A. B. Riley was called to determine the cause of the death and pronounced it due to congenital defect of the heart.

Race Will Be a Hot One.

Frankfort, Ky., March 30.—The most persistent talk in politics in Democratic circles in this State now is that when the entry list is made up for the candidates in the primary for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator to succeed W. O. Bradley, Governor James B. McCreary and Congressman A. O. Stanley will be in the list.

Lame shoulder is nearly always due to rheumatism of the muscles, and quickly yields to the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

BENNETTS.

April 1.—Miss Gola Cecil, who has been visiting Miss Meek Hocker, of the Mines, returned home last week.

Mr. Alfred Wallace has bought the farm of Mrs. Mary Likens, of Hamilton Chapel, and Mrs. Likens will move to Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter and little son were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Porter, of Hartford, Sunday.

Amos, the little son of Mr. B. F. Bean, who has been real sick, is some better.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Benn and family spent Sunday last with Mrs. Phillips, of Hartford.

A Healing Salve For Burns, Chapped Hands and Sore Nipples.

As a healing salve for burns, sores, sore nipples and chapped hands Chamberlain's Salve is most excellent. It allays the pain of a burn almost instantly, and unless the injury is very severe, heals the parts without leaving a scar. Price, 25 cents. For sale by all dealers.

WANTED.

Two good tenants on farm. Must have good teams and come well recommended. Good proposition for the right parties. For further particulars, address X, care of Hartford Herald.

"Our baby cries for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Rasaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.

Get Ready For This Great Annual Event!

